Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 895, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and ninety-one) entitled "An act to provide for the filing auditing and confirmation in certain cases of accounts of trustees and of committees of lunatics and of habitual drunkards" so far as the same relates to estates of lunatics and habitual drunkards

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, you will notice on page 5 the bill that you are about to vote on is a repealer. This is not one of the regular repealers, and I think in fairness to the House I should say so. The other repealers in no way change the existing law. This does repeal a law but leaves on the books an old law which is much better in effect than the act of 1909. If you want any further explanation I can make it.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1281, entitled:

An Act to further amend section seventeen of an act approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred sixty-eight), entitled "An act providing for the establishment of a State Highway Department, by the appointment of a State Highway Commissioner, two Deputy State Highway Commissioners, chief engineer, chief draughtsman, superintendents of highways, and a staff of assistants and employes; defining the duties and the jurisdiction of the State Highway Department, and fixing salaries of commissioner and deputies and other appointees; providing for taking over from the counties or townships of the Commonwealth certain existing public roads connecting county-seats; principal cities, and towns and extending to the State line; describing and defining same by route numbers as the State Highways of the Commonwealth; providing for the improvement, maintenance and repair of said State Highways solely at the expense of the Commonwealth, and relieving the several townships or counties from any further obligation and expense to improve or maintain the same, and relieving said townships or counties of authority over same; requiring boroughs and incorporated towns to maintain certain State Highways wholly and in part; requiring the State Highway Commissioner to make maps to be complete records thereof; conferring authority on the State Highway Commissioner; providing for the payment of damages in taking of property, or otherwise, in the improvement thereof; providing for purchase or acquiring of turnpikes or toll-roads forming all or part of any State Highway, and procedure therein; providing for work of improvement of State Highways to be done by contract, except where the State Highway Commissioner decides the work be done by the State; providing aid by the State to counties and townships desiring the same in the improvement of township or county roads; defining highways and State-aid highways; providing method of application for State aid in the improvement, maintenance and repair of township or county roads and prescribing the contents of township, county, borough, or incorporated town petitions, providing for percentage of cost of improvement or repairs to be paid by State, county township, borough, or incorporated town, and requiring contracts by counties, townships, boroughs, and incorporated towns with Commonwealth governing same; providing for the minimum width of State Highways and State-aid highways, and kind of materials to be used in the improvement; providing for payment of cost of improvement and repairs; providing penalty for injuring or destroying State Highways; making appropriations to carry out the provisions of the act; and providing for the repeal of certain acts relating to Highway Department and improvement of roads, and of all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith; and providing that existing contracts are not affected by provisions of this act," by conferring certain additional powers on the Secretary of Highways and providing penalty for injuring or destroying grasses, shrubs, vines and trees within the limits of State Highways, or for placing encroachments on, within, under or over State Highways or State-aid Highways.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Lancaster?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOLMES. There are many of us who would like to know the policy or intention of the Department of Highways with respect to the planting of shrubs, grasses, vines or trees to be planted and maintained along the state highway, whether it is to take care of some particular case, or whether they are going to establish a bureau in the Department of Highways to conduct all the general planting of flowers and shrubs along the State Highways.

Mr. HESS. This bill does not apply to any particular place, but it is the intention of the Commissioner so far as the beautifying of the rights of way of the State highways of the Commonwealth is concerned, beginning with the most prominent first and then following into the less prominent. It does not seek to create a bureau but simply empowers the Highway Commissioner to enter into an agreement with the Department of Forests and Waters to utilize some of the material that they have to distribute for the purpose of beautifying the highways of the Commonwealth.

Mr. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am sure that we are all very anxious to see the day that we can beautify the highways of the State, but I do feel at the present time that there is going to be no large amount of money to spend for this purpose, that it would be far better if the State Highway Department at the present time would try to get the people in the rural districts out of the mud before we start to spend any great amount of money on beautifying the roads by planting flowers, shrubberies, and so forth. Now, we are going to come to that, and it will be a very fine thing, but I do think that it is far more important to improve the secondary system of the State of Pennsylvania, before we start in on this general plan of beautifying I am sure that we will all be pleased when that time is here, but at the present time, I am sure it would be better to build and complete the secondary system of the State before we start in on spending any great amount of money, because it is going to be an expensive proposition. You will have to have your landscape gardners and it is not only the planting of shrubbery, but it is the keeping of it in condition during the summer time which we will find will be a great expense to the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is not the thought of the Commissioner of the Department that if this bill is enacted into law that it shall in any manner interfer with the progress that is now being made in the construction of secondary highways. There are several bills introduced in this House which have for their purpose the employment of convict labor on the Highways, and this is one of the uses to which that labor which would cost but very little money, could be put to decided advantage. I assure you that the good sense of this Commissioner will not permit him to run wild on this proposition to the extent where it would in any way interfere with the construction of the prominent roads of this Commonwealth, and I ask you to pass this bill and permit the department to start this work of beautifying these rights of way. I am sure that it will be carried on in an entirely conservative way.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House in regard to beautifying the State Highways, I would just like to say a few words. We have now all of 1200 miles of highways of the state scheduled, and out of those 1200 miles I don't suppose there has been a shovel put to them yet, and the proposition is to add more to it and I think that they had better build highways first and then start beautifying them afterwards.

Mr. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, terrogate the gentleman from Lancaster,

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I agree with every word the gentleman has said relative to the employment and the use of certain convict labor and in fact I am very anxious to see the day when we can begin beautifying the State Highways, but what assurance have we, and I have all the respect for the present Highway Commissioner, but can you tell me what assurance we have for the future, what some man who may come into that office will do, who will probably run wild on beautifying at the expense of the improvement of the different highways of the State.

Mr. HESS. Well, of course you can never have an assurance at all of the future. If we attempted to do that we could never make any progress at all because you would be fearful to start anything progressive without fearing what some one may do in the future, but I feel that I can assure everybody in this House that during the next four years with this Highway Commissioner and this Governor there will be no abuse along this line.

An Act to provide that where the Department of Highways has heretofore acquired, or shall hereafter acquire by condemnation, purchase or otherwise, the abandoned right-of-way of a canal, railroad or turnpike company to form a part of a state highway route, and any part thereof is located within the limits of any borough, the part located within the borough shall be taken and deemed to be a borough street without any action on the part of the borough or any of its representatives to either accept, dedicate or open it as such, and making such boroughs responsible for any damages occasioned by such taking within their limits.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1103, entitled:

An Act to repeal an act approved the twenty-fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven (Pamphlet Laws fourteen) entitled "An act to authorize the president judges of the several judicial districts of this Commonwealth to procure the assistance of president or additional law judges of another district in the transaction of business in the several courts of such district"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCORMICK. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of the bill permit himself to be interrogated?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill. Mr. Whitehouse, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. McCORMICK. Is this act of assembly obsolete at the present time?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Yes. This is part of the general program. The act of 1911 which is the one that we are now working under furnishes a complete system. The next two repealers that I have on the list today are also a part of the general plan.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Turner,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 711, entitled:

An Act to amend Chapter seven Article two of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto" regulating notice for bids for contracts and the opening thereof in townships of the second class

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 711, file folio 1049, be referred to the Committee on Counties and Townships for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1254, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 205), entitled "An act enlarging the powers of mutual savings fund or building and loan associations; authorizing them to accumulate a reserve fund to pay contingent losses, and validating such funds heretofore accumulated; to permit members to secure the repayment of one-half of their loans by a straight bond and mortgage, for a fixed term, and authorizing said associations to make loans in certain cases upon a stipulated premium; and further authorizing them to loan money to other like associations under certain conditions; and repealing all laws inconsistent with this act," permitting building and loan associations to have contingent funds not in excess of fifteen per centum of their assets

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and cosideration of House Bill No. 933, entitled

An Act to regulate the practice of chiropratic and to provide for the appointment and maintenance of a board of chiropractic examiners to define the powers and duties of said Board of Chiropractic Examiners to provide for the examination and licensure of chiropractors in this State and provide for penalties for the violation of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House in 1923 when this bill was before us, or a similar bill to license chiropractors, I voted against the bill out of courtesy to my colleague, Dr. Steedle. In 1925 Dr. Steedle was not in the House and I voted for the bill, and this session I am sponsoring the bill. I have been asked to do this by the State Organization of Chiropractors through its attorneys. I have never taken any chiropractic treatments, none of my family has ever taken any chiropractic treatments, and on the other hand I have in my family some medical doctors.

I am for his bill on the abstract principle of fairness by giving these people, a number of people in the state of Pennsylvania who are practitioners in this branch of the healing art, the right to regulate their own business under the state law. There is nothing in my attitude which assails the great medical profession, which in its wonderful work in the prevention of disease, has placed the profession of medicine in the first rank of all professions. If we all listened to the medical doctors, who tell us what we should not do to be well, we would never be sick and we would soon obliterate the doctors, if we followed their advice. Carrying this thought one step farther, the Christian Scientist tells us that we would all be perfect if we did as the Lord said, "Be ye perfect as I am perfect," and we would never be sick.

Under our constitution we have the right of religious liberty to act as we think best in our religious practice. We should have and do have the same right in our homes to choose our medical advisers, the Christian Scientist, the osteopath, or whether we wish to avail ourselves of the chiropractor. So it is a matter of what each person thinks, and under our constitution I believe we should have the right and liberty to consult our own medical doctors.

There is now in Pennsylvania nothing to license the chiropractor. They wish to lift their profession by raising the standard of education and by keeping out of the practice those who do not attain to the standard that the best of the profession wish to have. In 1911 there was a bill passed to license the drugless therapist. A great many came under that licensing, I think we had about a hundred and nine in the state. Since that no one has been licensed in chiropractic in Pennsylvania, notwithstanding the assertion of the medical board. There is no such word as chiropractic in our Pennsylvania law, and we can only have it if we pass this bill giving to the chiropractors the right to have their own medical board and to use their own standard of education and requirement and to maintain these standard under that board. I would ask the members to vote for this bill.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to add a word to what the lady from Allegheny, Miss Grimes, has said in regard to the chiropractor. I believe this bill has been discussed at previous sessions; I know a bill somewhat similar to this was at the last regular session and there was quite a lot of dissension among the different branches of the chiropractors in regard to just what they did want, but this is a united bill put in by the Pennsylvania Chiropractors' Association and it is a very meritorious piece of legislation. I have at my desk here for the use of any one who wants to use it some five hundred or more letters from people all over the state in regard to this chiropractor bill, and every one of these letters—I wish to call this fact to the attention of the members—every one of these letters are letters asking for the support of this chiropractor bill, there is not one letter against it. Is not that enough to sound the consciences of the members of this House? I have in this group of letters a letter from the general manager of the Carnegie Steel Corporation, bank presidents, athletes, grocers, plumbers, laborers, and so forth, from every line of work or labor there is in this state, all asking for support for this bill. I just want to call your attention to some propaganda which has been put out against this bill. You all received a copy of it, it is printed by the Pittsburgh Medical Bulletin, written by a man named Meakin in the Chicago Tribune, on February 13th, 1927, in which he says that these chiropractors are making a lot of money, that they have got left hooks and use the half-nelson and all that sort of stuff. I would just like to say to the members of this House that all that fellow needs is a chiropractic adjustment to let him know that there is no such thing as left hooks and half-nelsons, and so forth, in chiropractics. It is a science, a very good science that we should all be glad to support, and I would like to have the members of this House give this bill very serious consideration, and I am sure this data which I have at my desk is open to your inspection at any time.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Howe.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Howe, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOWE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman this: What would be the chiropractic treatment on the educational committee when it promised to report a bill and changed its mind?

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, in response to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would say that I am not a chiropractor myself and would not know how to diagnose the case.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as chairman of the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation, I would like to say that this bill has been before the Committee on more than one occasion. The committee has been given ample time to investigate all the conditions surrounding the bill. We have come to the conclusion in the committee, after serious thought and consideration, that the bill should be reported out as committed. The bill is now up for final passage, and the argument which I put forward for the passage of the bill is because of my standing as a dental practitioner. There was a time when other professions did not care to recognize the dental profession. There was a time when other professions did not care to recognize the osteopath but there has come a time when they did recognize the dentist, and the osteopath, and they are doing a very, very fine work. In this state we have in the neighborhood, possibly, of fifteen hundred chiropractors, more or less, and they are under no official control in this state. If we do not give them a board they are going to continue as they have done in the past. There have been no prosecutions, and for the good and welfare of the State of Pennsylvania and for the people who make up this great Commonwealth, I feel that the sooner they are put under a board where we can have some control over them, the better for them and the better for the Commonwealth and the people that live in it, and for that reason I ask you to vote for this bill.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I simply want to rise and add my word of approval to the splendid speech of the lady from Allegheny. I happen to be the father of twelve healthy children and in addition thereto seven grandchildren who are healthy, and we only had one of these grandchildren who was afflicted and had to have the care of the medical profession for a number of years. We finally decided that that grandchild had the same right and privilege to be healthy as had all the other children and grandchildren, and we sent out and secured the services of a chiropractor, and as a result of that service the eighth grandchild is as healthy as the other eighteen children.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Allegheny, Miss Grimes, permit herself to be interrogated?

Miss GRIMES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KAHLE. Is there any law now governing the chiropractor in the state of Pennsylvania?

Miss GRIMES. There is not.

Mr. KAHLE. There is not?

Miss GRIMES. There is a law licensing drugless therapists, but no chiropractors are licensed as chiropractors under that bill.

Mr. KAHLE. Why does the Department of Health put out a bulletin of rules governing the drugless therapists and the psycho-therapists and others of that nature if there is no such law?

Miss GRIMES. I do not know why they do so but every person who calls himself or herself a chiropractor in Pennsylvania is prosecuted under the law for doing so.

Mr. KAHLE. I wish also to ask you why this bill desires class legislation so far as the chiropractic board is to keep its own funds, its own records, and so forth, when all other boards put their funds into the State Treasury, which comprises fourteen funds in all.

Miss GRIMES. The bill provides that the money shall be paid out on the warrant of the Auditor General, which amounts to the same thing. It is merely a technical difference. It goes into the State Treasury just the same as the rest do, or how else would the Auditor General pay it out.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, I arise in defense of the people of Pennsylvania for this reason. I have no other motive, even though I am an M. D. They are accusing us men of opposing the bill on this account. I have no ax to grind, I have practiced probably all the medicine I will. I have one son who did not take up the practice of medicine, he has another profession that he pursues, so as I told you I have no ax to grind, but for the people of Pennsylvania I do say this, that I think the standard of practices that deal with the health of the people of Pennsylvania should be placed on a par. Now if you look at the statistics and requirements that they ask for in regard to their practice, you will find that they ask for two high school years after 1929, as I understand it. The osteopathic primary education demands the high school, one year in pre-college work and four years in an osteopathic college. The medical profession today has a standard of four years of high school, two years pre-medical, four years in the medical college and one year in the hospital as an interne. Now, gentlemen, there is the standard. If we are going to deal with the lives of the people of Pennsylvania why must we permit one to come in with a low standard and demand that the other come in with a higher standard. I say it must be just, it should be just, for the sake of the people of Pennsylvania. Let me give you an illustration. I think that any one dealing with the lives of the people should know surgery; they should know how to diagnose a condition, and they should know anatomy, and all those things. They need not take up materia-medica, but I do say for the sake of the people they should know what ails a person and they should not take them under a cloak and say to them that they need an adjustment and go ahead, when they do not know what is wrong. Let me give you an illustration. About nine weeks ago a man came to my office and looked pretty bad; he had a hectic flush and a little distress in his left side. I gave him some medicine, I talked to him and advised him what to do, and he came back in a week but was no better. I again prescribed for him, and I requested him to take a bottle with him and spit in it and let me test his sputum for tuberculosis, which I suspected he had. I asked him to return it to me before I came back to Harrisburg so I could take care of the test. In the meantime he did not return and I was told that he was going to one of these drugless therapists near Oil City, and in a short time I heard he was improving. I met him on the street the next time I was at home and said, "Howard, how are you?" He answered, "I am getting better, I am pretty well, I am doing pretty good." I said, "Now Howard, be careful, your condition is not good, I realize where you are, and you want to be careful and consider what you are doing," and I went on about my business. Last Sunday a week ago a man came to my office and said, "Dr. Kahle, will you go along out to see Howard Sherry?" I said, "How is he, I thought he was getting well?" "No," he said, "we are afraid he is going to die." I drove out into the country a mile or so, and it was a pathetic scene. When I went up to the bed he reached out his hand, he was sick, his eyes were glassy, and he said to me, "Doctor, do something for me, I want to live for my children's sake, for my home and my people. Do something for me." The tears were streaming down his cheeks. I talked to him and examined him, and just as I told him before, he was having trouble there and I found in the cavity surrounding the lung a lot of pus, and I went in between the ribs and drew off between two and three quarts of pus from that man's lung, the pleural cavity.

There is an illustration of the case of a man who has no knowledge of diagnosis, no knowledge of surgery or anything of that kind, who treats that man with his pschycotherapy, and so forth, and makes him believe until a certain time that he is getting better. He holds the life of that man in his hands, and gives him an adjustment, and while that man is somewhat improved, he may never recover. I think the time has come that when a man deals with the lives of the people, he should know surgery, he should know diagnosis, and things of that kind. Instead of that we have these people who say to the patient, "Yes, you have need of an adjustment, you have a little trouble in your back here", and they insist upon him coming back day after day, until the man is so low that his life has almost ebbed away. That is only one thing. I have practiced for twenty-five years, and I realize it, and the only opposition that the medical men today have against this bill is this:

That they realize what the people demand and the ordinary laymen do not look at it in this light. We come into contact with the people treated today at their homes, and we know what the outcome is. For myself I do not ask that they should not have something, but I do say that this bill is not right. They should have a board to protect them, so far as I am concerned, but I say that this bill is not right. They should be required to have a primary education that would prepare them to deal with the lives of the people in every case.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Clarion.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clarion, Mr. Kahle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KAHLE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if the medical profession always diagnoses every case correctly, right off.

Mr. KAHLE. No.

Miss GRIMES. Is it not frequently stated that the operation was a success but that the patient died?

Mr. KAHLE. Not that I know of, no.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker, chiropractics have been in existence for many years. It has a number of colleges teaching a well qualified, three years course, embracing the following subjects: anatomy, physiology, chemistry, diagnosis, dietetics, pathology, sanitation, hygiene, and the study of chiropractics, which means the manipulation of the spinal cord. We do not know what an important part this spinal cord plays. It may be that this group of doctors have found something wonderful that we do not know yet. The spinal cord is the great nerve center of the body, and I see no reason why specialists who have directed their attention to it should not be given proper consideration. In regard to this higher standard, we are willing to amend this bill in the Senate and increase the standard to a four year high school course, or a similar educational course, and two years college work in a scientific college.

Mr. WILSON. That particular I don't object to, but sponsor of this bill, the lady from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Allegheny, Miss Grimes, permit herself to be interrogated?

Miss GRIMES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILSON. I wish to vote for this bill, and I desire to call your attention to Section 13, file folio 2503, lines 15 and 16, where the bill provides that the chiropractors shall be subject to the same rules of health as the physicians, and shall make the same reports to the board of health as are made by the regular practicing physicians. It then goes on to say, "And such reports shall be accepted by the officers or department to whom the same are made." I have some doubt in my mind as to whether or not the health officers of the municipalities of the State of Pennsylvania should be compelled to accept a report on a contagious disease from a person who does not profess to know anything about medicine. I want to vote for the bill but that section bothers me, and I ask you whether or not you will be willing to agree that that clause compelling the officers to take these reports should be stricken out in your bill in the Senate.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Wilson, as I understand these chiropractors shall be subject to all city and municipal regulations relating to those things just the same as other practitioners are, they put themselves in the same class.

Mr. WILSON. That particular I don't object to.

Miss GRIMES. It is necessary in this bill to put them there.

Mr. WILSON. That particular I don't object to, but I do object to the other part that says, "and such reports shall be accepted by the officers or department to whom the same shall be made". Now if that compels health officers to take the quarantine off on a certificate of a man who knows nothing about medicine and professes to know nothing about medicine, where are we going to be under our health laws? How about a death certificate report? Are his reports or death certificates as to the cause of death of something he knows nothing about, or does not profess to know anything about medicine to be accepted? I think the section which requires the health officers or the department to accept those reports should be stricken out. I speak in all friendliness, I want to vote for it.

Miss GRIMES. If this bill did not have this requirement there would be nothing to say that they would be compelled to make such report.

Mr. WILSON. But I think if it should require them to make reports on diseases when you come to say that the authorities shall be compelled to receive the report on a disease from someone who does not profess to know anything about it, I think you are hampering the medical profession of the State. Why should a certificate of a chiropractor that the contagion has passed and that child or that house should be relieved of the quarantine on the certificate of the man who says he does not know anything about diseases be forced upon the public officers of the state.

Miss GRIMES. I think that the section as it is is all-right, but to take out any doubt in the minds of some of the members who think it does do what you think it does I would be willing to amend that in the Senate and take that out.

Mr. WILSON. With that understanding I will vote for the bill.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, all that I might say or add to the argument that has already been proposed may be absolutely nil. But to sit idly by without raising my voice in protest against the passage of this bill, I feel would be a direct slap at the profession of which I happen to be a member. In arising I wish to express to my esteemed colleague, Miss Grimes, a word of thanks for her kind expression for me and for my profession in the several sessions of which she happens to have been a member and likewise myself. To sit down and listen to the eulogy was indeed pleasant to me.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, this chiropractic bill has been here for almost as many sessions as I have had the pleasure of being a member of this House. Lest I be misinterpreted in any remarks I might offer, I should like it to be made plain to everyone within the sound of my voice, that I deny no good that the organization of chiropractors has performed, for the reason that I believe in any cult, whatever it may be, there may be and is some virtue. Let us see how far we can prove this. There are many people in the state of Pennsylvania who deny themselves the attention of a physician in illness and even in accident, but the chiropractor or osteopath or naturopath, or, if you please, a spiritualist, comes in and does the work. The mere faith that individual has in the one who has instructed him or her to have that faith in his or her Maker, that He will show the way out of all misery.

There is not a member of this House who could not probably pick out one particular person or friend of his, who doen't know that a so-called Christian Scientist has done some good. I ask you, gentlemen, in all fairness to yourselves, would you want to create a board to license Christian Scientists as a cult in the art of healing? I don't believe you would.

Over on the other side of the House, in the Senate, this afternoon there is to be a hearing on one particular type or cult called naturopathy. They have a board over there and it is their desire that out of their number shall be appointed so many men and women who shall constitute this board of examination.

To-day we are discussing the question here whether we will grant to the chiropractors their board or whether we will deny them their board. Probably if the session were to go on for two or three more months along would come another particular cult called the hydrotherapists, they would want a board, and if the chiropractors are entitled to a board, then my friends there is no reason on God's green earth why we should deny anybody a board. The chiropractor of to-day has within the gift of the law all of the rights and privileges to take an examination and be licensed. I want to answer the lady from Allegheny by saying to you here that at the present time there are something like three hundred and some odd licensed chiropractors in the state of Pennsylvania, that were licensed under the Act of 1913 under the title of so-called drugless therapists. My good friend from Allegheny, and my colleague, calls your attention to the fact of the high level and standard of the future student of chiropractics. Men and women have you realized, or have you stopped to think, of the many, many chiropractors in Pennsylvania to-day who were educated by a correspondence school, and to them you are going to entrust the lives and liberty of the people of this state to those who know no more of diagnosis or diseases than I do about driving an elephant to water.

That is the serious question that is involved in this particular subject. Where is the limitation? How far are you going to go? Are you going to open up this avenue and let every cult enter into it with a board and subject its members to an examination while at the same time there are men and women here who don't know an iota, that would not be able to differentiate measles from chicken pox, that would not be able to tell a case of tuberculosis from carcinoma of the stomach, or cancer, if you please, and so on down along the line.

In my home town a particular chiropractor, whom I have known well personally for years, was a machinist for the Lake Erie railroad shops, and after receiving a correspondence education in chiropractics, the gentleman goes out and puts a placard on his house "Dr. So and So." Now, you know the word "doctor" does not mean anything but learned, and anybody who is learned in any particular line or profession, law or whatever it may be, can apply the word "doctor", that is part of his degree, but it seems to be the common thought of the laity in general that when you see a sign Dr. Jones or Dr. Smith, the first thought that comes into your mind is "he is a doctor; he is a medical doctor." Down below that sign it does not say that he is a doctor of chiropractics, that he is a doctor of naturopathy, that he is a hydrotherapist, that he is spondylotherapist; God knows all the therapy that are going to come down here.

Ladies and gentlemen, be reasonable. I ask in all fairness protect the citizens of our Commonwealth by entrusting the health of the individuals in the state into the hands of men and women who are trained, who have been educated, sacrificed time and money. Are you going to put them in competition with the man who has been a chiropractor and studied for three weeks? I know men and ladies that you are not going to do anything of the kind; you are too broad-minded; you are too intelligent. I am aware of the fact that there has been a paid lobbyist up and down the avenues of this institution soliciting the assistance of a vote here and a vote there with the appeal, let us have our own board, and take us out of the hands of the medical society, out of the State Board of Examiners, take us away from the Board of Education.

My good friend from Allegheny, my colleague, says that she will amend this to meet certain conditions at the solicitation of a vote or two over in the Senate. Well, ladies and gentlemen, they have enough dirty linen to wash without washing ours. If any amendments are to be put into it let us do it here. Don't let us send it over to the Senate, and say to the Senate, "Here is our dirty linen, wash it out, we could not do it over there but we will entrust it to you."

Ladies and gentlemen, I am going to ask in all fairness for the protection of society to vote against this bill. Miss Grimes said they are being prosecuted. They are only being prosecuted where they infringe upon the medical fraternity in practicing medicine. They have not stopped at their so called spinal manipulation, but they go further and have been prescribing prepared medicine that they have in their office, and when these things occur that is when the medical society tells them "you are treading upon a dangerous soil, you will have to discontinue and if you don't we will prosecute you." It is only right that that prosecution should take place there, my friends. I am sure that there is not a member of this house who is fortunate enough to be a member of the Bar who would want to see a Justice of the Peace or an Alderman go before the Court and defend and practice law. That is how selfish we are in our profession. If they stay within their limitations of chiropractors, they can stay there as long as they want, but we don't want them to prescribe medicine. That is where we want to keep them. They have all the room in Pennsylvania to practice chiropractics now, and we don't object to their continuation. If they want to be licensed they can appeal to the Board of Medical Examiners and if they know anything of diagnosis then they will be granted a certificate. Now, ladies and gentlemen, I am going to ask you to kindly vote this measure down.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I want to clarify my understanding with the sponser of this bill, the lady from Allegheny, and for that purpose I would like to interrogate her.

The SPEAKER. Will the lady from Allegheny, Miss Grimes, permit herself to be interrogated?

Miss GRIMES. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILSON. Miss Grimes, have you authority for the Chiropractor's Association to agree with me on the floor of this House, that the words, "and such reports shall be accepted by the officers of department to whom the same are made," in lines 15, 16 and 17, Section 13, file folio 2503, of this act, will be strcken out in the Senate.

Miss GRIMES. I have not consulted with them, but I will take the authority myself to say so.

Mr. WILSON. I have absolute confidence in the lady from Allegheny. The object of the bill will be much strengthened by striking out these words. I would like to strike these words of this section out. I and a number of other country members here want to vote for it, and some of the city members too probably want to vote for it. However, I am perfectly willing to accept the word of Miss Grimes that she will have these words stricken out in the Senate, and I will vote for this bill with that understanding that the words will be stricken out.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 217.

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six (Pamphlet Laws forty-seven) entitled "An act supplementary to the act entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations' approved the twenty-ninth day of April Anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-four extending its provisions to all who may have the right to vote at elections for directors managers or trustees" regulating the manner of voting in first class corporations

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 2, line 26, by striking out the words: "in second class corporation."

RESOLUTION.

CONGRATULATING HONORABLE CARL C. BALDRIGE UPON BIRTH OF SON.

Mr. SOWERS offered the following resolution, which was twice read considered and adopted:

Whereas, in the history of America, many small communities have become famous as the birthplace or residence of great men, and

Whereas, Swissvale, a beautiful, and as we now know, a bountiful community, in the Western part of this Sovereign State, in the County of Allegheny, has already become famous in the annals of our State as the residence of one of the members of this House and no longer "wastes its fragrance on the desert air" and

Whereas, the population of this community has for some time past shown a steady growth and registered opposition to House Bills 455 and 456 and on Thursday March 10, 1927 increased the already growing population in numbers by	1

sex	boy
weight	9 pounds

Therefore be it,

Resolved, that the congratulations of this House be extended to a member, the father of this newly born boy who is his seventh child, (and still in his youth) with the hope that it may be vouchsafed to this offspring to carry on the accomplishments and traditions of its forbears and that with those members of his family who are already living and those who we hope may afterwards arrive, they may display the same characteristics of unselfish citizenship and intelligent co-operation as that of our fellow member, Carl C. Baldridge.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to thank the sponsor of the resolution for the unusual interest he took in the arrival of my seventh baby. I had the honor in 1917 of being the first member to have a baby born in that session and I think I have the same honor in this session. I want to say to you that baby is O. K., the mother is doing fine and and we are pleased to pieces. I thank you.

RESOLUTION.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 636 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. MARCUS asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read considered adopted:

In the House of Representatives. March 15, 1927

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 636, Printer's No. 141, File Folio 787, entitled "An act authorizing council of cities of the second class to fix the salary of the mayor of said cities; and providing the maximum amount thereof," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 185 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. MARCUS asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution, which was twice read considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, March 15, 1927.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 185, Printer's No. 152, File Folio 825, entitled "An act authorizing cities of the second class for the purpose of preventing damage from floods; to provide for the cleansing, improvement, regulation and control of streams and rivers lying either in whole or in part within their limits and to construct public works within their respective limits for such purposes, and to participate with the United States and this and other states, and the several cities, counties and other municipal and public corporations through which such rivers or streams flow in constructing such public works in or along such rivers or streams, either within or without the limits of such cities, and either within or without the limits of this Commonwealth, as may be deemed necessary for such purposes, and to enter into contracts therefor," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

NAYS—1.

Davidson,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Millar.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 647, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two three eleven twelve fourteen seventeen twenty-one twenty-three twenty-five twenty-eight twenty-nine thirty thirty-two thirty-four thirty-six thirty-eight forty-two forty-four forty-six forty-seven and forty-eight of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and nine) entitled "An act relating to the organization maintenance and operation of the Department of Banking and the scope of its supervision and control over corporations partnerships unincorporated associations and individuals and the assets and liabilities thereof providing penalties for the enforcement of its provisions and repealing The Banking Department Act of nineteen hundred and nineteen with table of contents"

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the Bill on third reading?

Mr. MILLAR. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend bill, page 5, line 27 by striking out the words "building and loan associations" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "corporations and persons".

Amend bill page 6, line 1 by striking out the word "associations" and inserting in lieu thereof "incorporations and persons".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1205, as follows:

An Act to further amend section three approved the twentieth day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and eighty-one) entitled "An act to amend sections two fourteen and twenty of an act approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred) entitled 'An act to provide for the immediate registration of all births and deaths throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by means of certificates of births and deaths and burial or removal permits requiring prompt returns to the Central Bureau of Vital Statistics as required to be established by the State Department of Health and in order to secure prompt and faithful registration of births marriages deaths and diseases of practitioners of medicine and surgery of midwives nurses and undertakers and of all persons whose occupation is deemed to be of importance in obtaining complete registration of births deaths marriages and diseases throughout the State as provided in section ten of an act entitled 'An act creating the Department of Health and defining its powers and deaths' approved the twenty-seventh day of April nineteen hundred and five and providing penalties for violations of this act"

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been salled up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Whitehouse.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 898, entitled:

An Act to provide for the compensation during the balance of their lives of judges of the Supreme Superior common pleas orphans municipal and county courts who resign after having attained the age of seventy-five years or more and after having held such office for fifteen years or more immediately prior to resigning

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Whitehouse, for an explanation of the bill?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill Mr. Whitehouse, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Certainly Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. What change does this bill make?

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. The pension bill, I possibly may have to read the whole bill, but in short the terms are these. Any judge who attains the age of seventy-five years after he has served fifteen years of continuous service and resigns received full salary for the rest of his term and half salary for the rest of his life. The merit of this bill is that the age is placed at seventy-five. I take it it when a man reaches seventy-five he is entitled to a pension if the present pension system is of any use at all.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides that when a man reaches seventy-five years of age and has been on the bench for the short term of fifteen years he is entitled for full pension for the rest of his life. No, I understand it is for the rest of his term. If a man is elected when he is sixty years of age and serves one term of ten years and then another term of five he then can quit and get paid for the next five years. That is what the bill means. If the members of this House want to vote for a bill of that kind you should vote for it, it must be a good bill. If you doubt I am calling your attention to the fact that it was only fifteen years of service for a pension.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, orators are born, they are not made. You take a speech without oratory, it is like a horse without a briddle. Last week the appropriations committee very graciously entered State College and among its members was an illlutriously member of this House who sits over yonder. He received an honorary degree of Doctor of Oratory. I suggest and I now make a motion that the Speaker call upon the gentleman from Delaware, Dr. Alexander, and ask him to give us a few words as to how it feels to be a Doctor.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. Dr. Alexander, I have been requested on behalf of the House to ask you to tell the House how it feels to be a Doctor of Oratory.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I am unable to tell just yet how it does feel. I have been so busy ever since practicing other things besides the profession for which I received the degree that I don't know yet how it feels. If any of you have ever been out with Mr. Stadtlander you know there is something in it for you before you get back because he always has something up his sleeve to play on someone else. He had our friend Huber up at Scranton some time ago and he had him in a bad state of mind. When he had Eddie up there he did not know whether he was in Scranton or Wilkes-Barre. I cannot explain just exactly how it feels to be a Doctor of Oratory because I have not yet had time to find out. I don't think this House wants to waste any more time hearing foolish remarks for I think we have enough work to do and I think we have been wasting time.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1250, as follows:

A Joint Resolution providing for the appointment of a commission by the Governor of this Commonwealth for the purpose of investigating and reporting upon both the geologic formation and strength of bituminous coal for the purpose of recommending necessary legislation to safeguard the health and lives of persons employed in the bituminaus coal mines of Pennsylvania and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith in the matter of providing safe and practicable thickness of barrier pilars between adjoining mining properties and making an appropriation to meet the expenses of said commission.

BITUMINOUS MINES

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met That the Governor of this Commonwealth be and it is hereby authorized to appoint seven competent citizens of whom four shall be recognized mining engineers one shall be a hydraulic engineer one a geologist of recognized standing in his profession and one a state mine inspector from the bituminous coal mining district to investigate and report upon barrier pillars in the bituminous coal region.

Section 2 The duties of the said commission shall be to ascertain from investigation the geologic formation and strength of bituminous coals in this Commonwealth and determine the practicable and safe thickness of barrier pillars to be established jointly between adjoining mining properties and prepare a bill for presentation to the Legislature as it shall deem necessary to protect the welfare and interests of employes operators and property owners

Section 3 That said commission shall report the result of their labor to the Legislature and shall convene in one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine on or before the first day of February of said year or at an earlier period if in their judgment the situation should demand urgency They shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for necessary expenses

Section 4 That said commissioners shall meet and organize within thirty days of their appointment and elect a chairman and a secretary and as promptly as possible proceed to perform their duties The commissioners shall have authority to employ such experts and such other employees as are necessary to the proper transaction of the busines of the commission The said commission shall also have power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of maps papers and other evidence at any meeting of the commission and for that purpose may issue subpoenas signed by the chairman of the commission and cause the same to be served and executed in any part of this Commonwealth If any witness shall refuse to testify as to any fact within his knowledge or to produce any maps or papers within his possession or under his control the secretary of the commission shall forthwith report the facts relating to such refusal to one of the courts of common pleas of the county wherein such witness resides and all question arising upon such refusal shall be at onec heard by said court If the court determine that the testimony or evidence required by such witness is legal and properly competent and ought to be given or produced by him then said court shall make an order commanding such witness to testify or produce maps or papers or both as the case may be and if such witness shall thereafter refuse to testify or to produce maps or papers as aforesaid in disobedience of such order of the court then the said court shall have power to order the commitment of such witness to the county jail of the proper county for contempt

Section 5 That for the purpose of the said commission the sum of ten thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act and for the payment of the expenses incurred by the commission and the members of the commission

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1146

Mr. LOTZ offered a resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, March 15th, 1927.

Whereas, There has been introduced in the House of Representatives of the General Assembly for the Session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, a bill known as House Bill No. 1146, entitled "An act to establish in the Deparment of Public Instruction a fund for the purpose of insuring school buildings against loss by fire; creating a board to administer the fund; providing methods of administration and making an appropriation for the expense of initiating he fund," and

Whereas, The passage of he bill might tend to improve the financial condition of school districts by affecting a saving to districts of amounts paid for fire protection, and

Whereas, The Department of Public Intruction and the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth acknowledge merit in said bill, but are not fully agreed as to the proper method of administration, thereof, and

Whereas, A proper sudy should be made of a matter of such vital importance to the school districts before any action is taken thereon, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the said House Bill No. 1146 be referred to the Superintendent of the Department of Public Instruction and the Insurance Commissioner as a commission to make a study of the provisions of said bill and generally, of the subject of the economical insurance of school property with the request that they present their conclusions thereon to the Session of the General Assembly to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 765, as follows:

An Act requiring the filing of plans and specifications for buildings public works highways or improvements undertaken by boroughs townships poor districts or school districts in counties other than counties of the first and second classes in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions and requiring copies to be furnished by the secretary architect or engineer of the municipality to applicants therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the directors council commissioners and supervisors respectively of every school district poor district borough and township (all of which are hereinafter included in the term "municipality") in counties other than counties of the first and second classes in the Commonwealth shall file in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the proper county fifteen days previous to the awarding of any contract for any building public work highway or improvement involving an expenditure of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more a copy of the plans and specifications thereof as finally adopted attested by the secretary of the municipality filing the same

Section 2 The clerk of the court of quarter sessions shall receive as a fee for filing said plans and specifications the sum of three dollars ($3.00) to be paid by the municipality filing the same

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES, Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER, Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER, I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES, Will the gentleman from Delaware county tells us what the object of this bill is as amended?

Mr. TURNER. It merely provides that plans for work to be done by school boards in excess of $10,000. shall be filed of record with the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions in order that there may be an official plan available for any people that want to see it. The plan is to be filed at least fifteen days before a contract is let.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Would that eleminate any changes that might be necessary as the work progressed?

Mr. TURNER. It would not prevent any changes. It would prevent any changes before the letting of the contract, it would not afterwards.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. What is to be gained by filing these plans in the Clerk's office when they can be obtained by anybody that is interested from the municipality itself?

Mr. TURNER. That is not always true. It is true in the larger municipalities, but not in the smaller.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES, What would be the penalty if they did not file a plan.

Mr. TURNER. Nothing.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Would it invalid the contract in any way?

Mr. TURNER. Yes sir.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Is there anything in your bill to that effect.

Mr. TURNER. I think there is.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. As I view the bill if they don't file the plans there is nothing to result therefrom in the way of invalidating the contract or paying the penalty.

Mr. T. J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware.

The SPEAKER, Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. TURNER, I will Mr. Speaker.

Mr. T. J. BROWN. Is it not a fact Mr. Turner, that here plans have to be filed with the department at Harrisburg?

Mr. TURNER. I think that is true.

Mr. T. J. BROWN. Even then you think it is necessary to have them filed in other places besides Harrisburg.

Mr. TURNER. The filing of the plans in Harrisburg may not be convenient to those who wish to bid on them in the local community such as Erie and Scranon, they may be some distance away. Certainly if they are required to file their plans in Harrisburg it can be no hardship to the school board to file the plans in the local court in the county-seat.

Mr. T. J. BROWN.Then it would be necessary for them to get another set of plans in order to do that?

Mr. TURNER. Another set of plans is simply a matter of blue printing.

Mr. T. J. BROWN. I don't see any good purpose to be served there because the school board as a usual thing ask for bids from different people in any event, and they will have printed plans, and anybody interested can be furnished plans by the school board.

tion shall receive the sum of one dollar to be paid to him at the same time and in the same manner as compensation is paid to him for his services on election day No judge or inspector of election shall serve in any election unless he shall have received such instruction and is fully qualified to perform his duties in connection with the machine and has received a certificate to that effect from a custodian of the machines Provided however That this shall not prevent the appointment of a judge or inspector of election to fill a vacancy in cases of emergency

Section 12 APPOINTMENT OF CUSTODIANS COMPENSATION The county commissioners shall cause the machines to be properly prepared prior to every election and for that purpose shall employ competent persons who shall be known as "custodians" who shall be sworn to perform their duties faithfully according to law and who shall receive each the sum of five dollars per day out of the county funds for each day actually employed under the provisions of this act One custodian shall be employed for each twenty machines One-half of the custodians shall be selected as nearly as may be from the party casting the largest vote at the election preceding the appointment The remainder shall be selected from minority political parties All appointments to fill vacancies shall be made in like manner The custodians shall be appointed for the term of two years

Section 13 PREPARATION OF MACHINES BY CUSTODIANS EXAMINATION BY PARTY REPRESENTATIVES In preparing a voting machine for an election the custodian shall according to the written or printed directions furnished by the county commissioners arrange the machine and the ballot labels therefor so that they will in every particular meet the requirements for voting and counting at such election The custodian shall thereupon test the machine and certify accordingly to the county commissioners The names of candidates shall be arranged on the machine in the manner prescribed by this act

Before preparing the voting machine for any election the custodians shall give written notice to at least three of the principal political parties stating the time and place where machines will be prepared at which time one representative appointed by the county chairmen of each such political parties shall be afforded an opportunity to see that the machines are in proper condition for use at the election Such representatives shall be sworn to faithfully perform their duties They shall not interfere with the custodians or assume any of their duties When a machine has been so examined by such representatives it shall be sealed with a numbered metal seal and such representatives shall certify (a) to the number of the machine (b) that the "public counter" and all the candidate and question "counters" register 000 (c) the number registered on the protective counter and (d) the number or other designating mark on the metal seal After being prepared for the election each machine shall be examined by some person other than the custodian preparing it and a certificate thereof filed with the county commissioners The custodians shall at least one hour before the opening of the polls cause all voting machines to be delivered to the polling places and shall certify to their delivery in good order on the certificate furnished therefor After such delivery the county commissioners shall provide proper protection therefor The county commissioners shall provide a light for every machine which shall be in good order and give sufficient light to enable voters while in the booth to read the ballot labels and suitable for use by the election officers in examining the counters

Section 14 DELIVERY OF ELECTION SUPPLIES The county commissioners shall cause to be delivered in a sealed envelope to the judge of election not later than the day before the election the keys for the voting machine On the sealed envelope shall be written (a) the name or designation of the election district (b) the number of the voting machine (c) the number mark on the metal seal and (d) the number registered on the "protective counter" as reported by the custodian for which a receipt shall be taken on the blank attached thereto The county commissioners shall also furnish (a) two diagrams (b) one extra set of ballot labels (c) one envelope containing a metal seal for sealing the machine after the polls are closed (d) one envelope for the return of the keys (e) two statements of canvass and (f) all other supplies necessary for conducting the election

Section 15 DUTIES OF ELECTION OFFICERS The election officers of each election district in which a voting machine is to be used shall meet at the polling place thereof at least forty-five minutes before the time set for opening the polls and before unlocking the machine for voting shall proceed as follows (a) They shall see that the voting machine is placed where it can be conveniently attended by the election officers and conveniently operated by the voters and where unless its construction requires otherwise the ballot labels thereon can be plainly seen by the election officers and the public when not being voting on (b) They shall see that the model is placed where each voter can conveniently operate it and receive instructions thereon as to the manner of voting before entering the booth (c) They shall post one diagram inside the polling room and one outside in places where the voters can conveniently examine them (d) They shall see that the lantern or other means provided for giving light is in such condition that the voting machine is sufficiently lighted to enable voters to readily read the names on the ballot labels (e) They shall see that the ballot labels are in their proper places on the machine (f) They shall see if the number on the metal seal sealing the machine also the numbers registered on the "protective counter" agree with the number written on the envelope containing the keys and if same do not agree they shall at once notify the custodian and delay unlocking the machine and opening the polls until he shall have re-examined the machine (g) If such numbers or marks do so agree the election officers shall open the doors concealing the counters and before the polls are opened each inspector shall carefully examine every counter and see that it registers 000 and allow the watchers to examine them if any of such counters shall be found to register some number other than 000 the judges of election shall at once notify the custodian who shall set such number at 000 but if it shall be impracticable for the custodian to arrive in time so to adjust such counters before the time set for opening the polls the inspectors shall immediately make a written statement of the designating number and letter of such counter together with the number registered thereon and shall sign and post the same upon the wall of the polling place where it shall remain throughout the election day and in filling out the statement of canvass they shall subtract such number from the number then registered thereon (h) After performing their duties as provided in this section the election officers shall certify thereto in the appropriate places on the statement of canvass as provided thereon and (i) When the polls are declared open the judge or an inspector of election shall break the seal and unlock the machine for voting

Section 16 VOTING ASSISTANCE Before each voter enters the booth the election officers shall so far as possible inform him how to operate the machine and illustrate same upon the model and call his attention to the diagram No voter shall remain within the booth longer than one minute and if he shall refuse to leave at the end of that time he shall be removed by the election officers Provided however That they may grant him a longer time if other voters are not waiting to vote Whenever a voter who has the right to vote only in a certain party or on certain offices or certain questions shall enter to vote the election officer shall so adjust same that such voter can vote in such party or on such offices or questions but no others If any voter shall in the presence of the election officers declare that he is by reason of physical disability unable to register or record his vote upon the machine he shall be allowed assistance to register and record his vote on the machine in such cases and in the manner now provided by the election laws If any voter after entering the voting machine ask for information regarding its operation the election officers shall give him such necessary information

Section 17 SECRECY EXAMINATION OF MACHINE PENALTY Except as before provided for in cases of assistance to voters the operation of voting shall be secret The election officers shall occasionally examine the face of the machine and the ballot labels to determine if same have been injured or tampered with No voter shall be permitted to enter the machine booth or move the operating lever more than once Any election officer who shall deceive any voter in registering or recording his vote or any person who shall register or record such vote in any other way than as designated by such voter or who shall give information to any person as to what candidate or for or against what questions such voter voted or shall seek to suggest or persuade any voter to vote for any party or for any candidate or for or against any question shall be guilty of a felony and shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or to undergo an imprisonment by separate or solitary confinement at labor for a period not to exceed two years

Section 18 DUTY OF ELECTION OFFICERS AFTER CLOSE OF POLLS At the hour for closing the polls the constable shall declare the polls of the election closed and the election officers shall not permit any further operation of the machine but all such voters as shall at the hour of closing be within the polling room and awaiting their turn to vote shall be considered as having began the act of voting and shall be permitted to cast their votes upon the machine As soon as such voters have voted the election officers shall (a) lock and seal the machine (b) unlock and open the doors of the counter compartment and (c) canvass the votes registered on the counters therein and the votes recorded on or in the device or devices for voting for persons not nominated and (d) shall make two statements of canvess thereof in the following manner (1) One election officer shall call the designating number and letter of each candidate's counter in the order given on the statements of canvass (2) and another election officer under the scrutiny of one of a different political party shall repeat such number and letter as it is read and announce the vote registered in such counter which vote shall thereupon be entered in ink on each of the statements of canvass (e) the canvass of each office shall be completed before proceeding to the next (f) the vote on each question shall be canvassed in the same manner (g) the votes cast on the irregular ballots shall then be canvassed and entered on the statement of canvass

All votes for persons whose names do not appear on the ballot labels must be cast in the proper places on or in the device for irregular ballots and all votes for persons whose names do appear upon the ballot labels must be cast on the counters therefor and any votes not so cast shall not be counted Provided however That at all elections at which Presidential electors are voted for with one device the voter may vote on or in the device for irregular ballots in part for the Presidential electors of one party and in part for those of one or more other parties or in part or in whole for persons not nominated by any party

After completing and writing down the canvass of the votes the election officers shall (a) verify same by comparing the figures on the statements of canvass with the figures on the counters in the machine and the names recorded on or in the device for voting for persons not nominated and (b) shall then certify in the appropriate place on each of the statements of canvass the number of voters that voted at the election as shown by the poll list (1) the number registered on the public counter (2) the number registered on the protective counter and (3) the number or other designating mark on the metal seal with which the machine has been sealed

After completing and certifying to the statements of canvass the judge or an inspector shall read therefrom in a distinct voice (a) the name of each candidate (b) the designating number and letter of his counter as stated thereon and (c) the vote entered for each also the vote for and against each question

During the canvassing and announcing of the vote the counter compartment shall remain open and opportunity shall be given to any person lawfully present to examine the counters to determine the correctness of the vote as announced The counter compartment shall then be locked and all the keys of the machine shall be delivered forthwith in a sealed envelope to the county commissioners The two statements of canvass shall be delivered forthwith as provided by law for the delivery of election returns

Section 19 MACHINE TO REMAIN LOCKED The registering mechanism of each voting machine used in an election shall remain locked and sealed against operation until required for the next succeeding election unless released by order of the return board or the court

Section 20 CUSTODY OF VOTING MACHINES AND KEYS The inspectors shall inclose the keys of the machine in an envelope supplied with the keys on which shall be written the number of the machine and the district and ward where it has been used securely sealed the envelope indorse it and return it to the officers from whom the keys were received The number on the seal and the number registered on the protective counter if so provided shall be written on the envelope containing the keys The county commissioners shall have the custody of the machines when not in use at an election and shall preserve and keep them in repair All keys for voting machines shall be kept securely locked by the county commissioners Any court return board or custodian who by any provision of law is entitled to the custody of a machine for any period of time shall be entitled to the keys therefor while such machine is in his or its charge It shall be unlawful for any unauthorized person to have in his possession any key or keys of any voting machine and all election officers or persons entrusted with such keys for election purposes or in the preparation of the machine shall at all times be stored in a suitable place necessary to use them for such legal purpose All machines shall be boxed and collected as soon after the close of the election as possible and the machines and the boxes for the machine therefor shall not retain them longer than selected by the county commissioners

Section 21 RECANVASS OF VOTES CORRECTIONS BY RETURN BOARD Whenever it shall appear that there is a discrepancy in the returns of any election district the return board shall summon the election board to make a recanvass of the vote cast before the return board without unlocking the machine against voting and for such purpose the machine shall be produced before the return board If upon a recanvass it shall be found that the original canvass of the return was incorrect the election officers shall correct such return in the presence of the return board but if it shall be found that the original canvass of the return was correctly made and that the discrepancy still remains unaccounted for the return board with the assistance of the custodian in the presence of the election board shall unlock the voting and counting mechanism and shall proceed to examine and test the machine to determine and reveal the cause of the discrepancy Before testing the counters shall be reset at 000 after which each counter shall be operated at least one hundred times When the cause of the discrepancy has been ascertained by the return board it shall have power to make any correction in the return from said district which may have been due to any defect in the operation of the machine The return board shall at all times upon its own motion or upon petition in the manner now provided by law have the power to correct any fraud or palpable fraud or mistake on the part of the election board in making a return of the votes cast

Section 22 EXISTING LAWS CONTINUED IN FORCE Except as herein otherwise provided all elections shall be conducted and returns of votes cast thereat be made and computed by the return boards in the manner now provided by law

Section 23 PENALTY Any person who shall tamper with or injure or attempt to injure any voting machine to be used or being used in an election or who shall prevent or attempt to provent the correct operation of such machine or any unauthorized person who shall make or have in his possession a key to a voting machine to be used or being used in an election shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment in the State prison for not less than one year or more than five years or by both such fine and imprisonment

Section 6 The names of candidates for nomination as President of the United States and the names of all other party candidates shall be printed upon the official ballot of a designated party upon the filing of nomination petitions in their behalf signed by qualified electors of the State or of the political district or division as the case may be within which the nomination is to be made or election is to be held and the filing of affidavits by the candidates as provided in this act and the names of no candidates shall be printed upon an official ballot of a political party to be used at any primary unless such petitions shall have been filed and unless such candidates except they be candidates for the office of President of the United States shall have filed affidavits as hereinafter provided

(a) Each signer of a nomination petition shall sign but one such petition for each office to be filed and shall declare therein that he is a member of the party designated in such petition Provided however That where there are to be elected two or more persons to the same office each signer may sign petitions for as many candidates for such office as and no more than he could vote for at the succeeding election He shall also declare therein that he is a qualified elector of the county therein named and in case the nomination is not to be made or candidates are not to be elected by the electors of the State at large of the political district or division therein named in which the nomination is to be made or the election is to be held He shall add his occupation and residence giving city borough or township with street and number if any and shall also add the date of signing No nomination petition shall be circulated prior to forty (40) days before the last day on which such petition may be filed and no signature shall be counted unless it bears date within forty (40) days of the last day for filing the same

Said nomination petition may be on one or more sheets and different sheets must be used for signers resident in different counties Each sheets shall have appended thereto the affidavit of some person—not necessarily a signer and not necessarily the same person on each sheet—setting forth that the affiant is a qualified elector of the State or of the political district or division as the case may be referred to in said petition his residence giving city borough or township with street and number if any that the signers signed with full knowledge of the contents of the petition that their respective residences are correctly stated therein that they all reside in the county named in the affidavit and that each signed on the date set opposite to his name and that to the best of affiant's knowledge and belief the signers are qualified electors and members of the designated party of the State or of the political district or division as the case may be

(b) Each candidate for any State county or city office shall file with his nomination petition his affidavit stating his residence with street and number if any and his post-office address his election district the name of the office for which he consents to be a candidate that he is eligible for such office and that he will not knowingly violate any election law or any law regulating and limiting nominations and election expenses and prohibiting corrupt practices in connection therewith That he is not a candidate for nomination for the same office of any party other than the one designated in such petition In no event shall petitions of any candidate be accepted for filing for nomination by more than one party for the same office and in no event shall the name of any person consenting to be a candidate for nomination for any one office be printed as a candidate for such office upon the official primary ballot of more than one party Provided That in no event shall any person's name be printed upon the official ballot of any party as a delegate State committeeman National committeeman or party officer unless he is a qualified elector of said party

In the case of a candidate for nomination as President of the United States it shall not be necessary for such candidate to file the affidavit required in this section to be filed by candidates but the post office address of such candidate shall be stated in such nomination

(c) Each candidate for election as delegate or alternate delegate to a National party convention may include with his affidavit the statement hereunder set forth in this section but his failure to include such statement shall not be a valid ground on the part of the Secretary of the Commonwealth for refusal to receive and file his nomination petition Such statement if any be made shall be in substantially the following form

Delegate's Statement

I hereby declare to the voters of my political party in the (here insert "State of Pennsylvania" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large otherwise insert "_____District") that if elected and in attendance as a delegate to the National convention of the party I shall with all fidelity to the best of my judgment and ability in all matters coming before the convention support that candidate for president of the United States who shall have received the highest number of votes cast in the (here insert "State" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large otherwise insert ".....District") by the voters of my party for said office at the ensuing primary and shall use all honorable means within my power to aid in securing the nomination for such candidate for President

(Signature of candidate for delegate or alternate delegate)

On the ballot used at a primary after or under the name of each candidate for delegate or alternate delegate to a National party convention shall appear the words "Promises to support popular choice of party in the (here insert "State" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large otherwise insert ".....District") for President" or Does not promise to support popular choice of party in the (here insert "State" if a delegate or alternate delegate at large otherwise insert ".....District") for President" according as if the candidate included or failed to include the above statement with his affidavit

Section 2 That section eight of said act is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 8 No nomination petition shall be refused or set aside except for

(a) Material error or defects apparent on the face thereof or on the face of the appended or accompanying affidavits or

(b) Material alterations made after signing without the consent of the signers or

(c) Want of a sufficient number of genuine signatures of persons qualified with respect to age sex residence and citizenship to be electors

(d) The fact that a nomination petition or nomination petitions have previously been filed for printing of the name of the same person for the same office upon the official ballot of any other political party

The invalidity of any sheet of a petition shall not affect the validity of such petition if a sufficient petition remains after eliminating such invalid sheet

Application to set aside any nomination petition shall be by petition to the court of common pleas of the county in which such petition has been filed setting forth specifically the matters objected to and must be filed within five days after the last day for filing said nomination petition Upon the presentation of such a petition the court shall make an order fixing a time for hearing which shall not be later than ten days after the last day for filing said nomination petition and specifying the time and manner of notice that shall be given to the candidate named in the nomination petition sought to be set aside

If the matters objected to are such as are specified in the subdivision (a) of this section the court upon hearing the case may in its discretion permit amendments within such time and upon such terms as to payment of costs as the said court may specify

In case the petition to set aside a nomination petition is dismissed the petitioner shall pay the whole of the costs of the proceeding including all witness fees

The House met at 10:00 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee this beautiful morning for the beauty of Thy created world, that "day unto day uttereth speech and night unto night showeth knowledge". Help us to see Thy glory and Thy beauty revealed in all the things about us and help us to try to find the beauty of the Eternal God as revealed in the lives of each other; that there are men and women about us in the world to-day who are reflecting the beauty of God's character in their own lives, faintly, but none the less clearly, who are self-sacrificing, who give their lives to service. Help us to try to find these things in each others lives, and help us not only to admire but to love each other more. Go with us to-day to our homes. Bless us until we come back again and be with us in this session this morning; we ask in Thy Name. Amen.

Mr. WEIKERT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from postponed calendar by Mr. Turner,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 741, entitled:

An Act to amend sections six hundred and seventeen as amended and seven hundred and eight of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" regulating advertisements and notices for bids and the public opening thereof

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 13 by inserting after the word "thereof" the following: other than school districts of the first class

Amend sec. 1, page 3, line 15 by striking out the word "financially"

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 9 by inserting after the word "district" the following: other than districts of the first class

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 18 by inserting after the word "county" the following "Provided, That if in any emergency a part of the heating or ventilating or lighting system should become unusable during the school term, competitive bids for replacement or repairs may be submitted by three responsible bidders and upon the approval of any one of these bids by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Board of School Directors may proceed at once to make the necessary replacement or repairs in accordance with the terms of said approved bid"

Amend Sec. 2, page 4, line 7 by inserting after the word "circulation" the following: "published in the county"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 150, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of an act approved the ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred sixty-one) entitled "An act to protect trees and woodlands and providing punishment for the violation thereof" as amended

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1030, entitled:

An Act declaring it a misdemeanor for any person with intent to defraud to obtain a motor vehicle from the owner or person lawfully in possession thereof by agreeing to pay a rental for the use thereof based in whole or in part upon the distance the motor vehicle shall travel

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I would like to ask the gentleman to explain this bill, and what the purpose is.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, this bill and the bill following have been introduced to take care of a situation which I am told is not at present taken care of by any of our criminal laws. It takes care of the kind of contract that is made between the firms that lease cars to persons who use them as long as they want to use them, in other words "hire your own car" idea.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority repuired by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1051, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and seven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and sixty-four) entitled "An act to increase the pay of jurors and witnesses in this Commonwealth," as amended

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I have been voting for salary increases in every direction, and the time has pretty nearly expired with me for voting for needless increases of salary. We have no trouble in getting jurors in our county at the present price of $4.00 a day, and I know of no necessity for increasing their salaries. There has not been an effort made in this House as yet that I have noticed to reduce taxation upon the overburdened taxpayers of this Commonwealth, and as a member from the rural districts, I wish to say to you that it is getting to be a critical thing to raise the taxes that are being imposed upon real estate. Twenty-five percent of the farms of one half of Pennsylvania are to-day vacated, they cannot make a living and pay the extortionate taxes. What is the necessity for pauperizing our people and driving them from their homes and confiscating their properties under the guise of taxation.

I wish to serve notice upon the Clerk at this time that he will please record me as voting "no" upon every bill that tends to raise salaries of officials from this time on unless I specifically make him hear to the contrary.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, as sponsor of this bill, I want to say that I have given careful consideration to the arguments that might be brought against it. I realize that there was some going to oppose this bill on the ground that it was a patriotic duty that we owe to our government to serve upon juries. I also realize that some would say that it was not good from an economic viewpoint. Mr. Speaker, it is a fact that the jurymen are receiving less consideration for their services than any other employe in the service of the government. I believe you must take into consideration the responsibility that rests upon the jurors. In the first place they are the men who say the word that means life or death in many cases. Another thing, they are the men who accept this responsibility and in very many instances they are the men that can't afford to lose time to serve on the jury. We have men back in our place where I come from who are working for $6.00 and $7.00 a day, who have large families to raise, and when they go on the jury services it means a considerable loss to them. Another thing I want to say is that the men who can afford to serve on juries very often get excused from the service.

I want to say, Mr. Speaker, that inasmuch as the vote here to-day seems rather light, and in order to give everybody a chance that I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calender.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1481, entitled:

An Act relative to the establishment and jurisdiction of Magistrates' Courts in Philadelphia and creating a Board of Magistrates providing for a Chief Magistrate prescribing their powers and duties providing for Clerks establishing a Central Administrative office imposing upon the City of Philadelphia the cost of establishment and maintenance of Magistrates' Courts including payment of all salaries fixing salaries and restricting Magistrates to duties of office and repealing certain prior acts

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading,

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, at the request of my colleague, Mr. Sowers, I move that House Bill No. 1481, file folio 2765, be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special for the purpose of further amendment.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Ageeeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1197, (Senate Bill No. 354), entitled:

An Act granting additional equity powers to courts of common pleas to prevent restrain and abate encroachments on public sidewalks in established retail districts contrary to law

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is required.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 277 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. STERLING offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered, and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, March 16, 1927.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 277, Printer's No. 74, File Filio 555, entitled "An act to amend paragraph one of section four of an act approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and eleven), entitled 'An act establishing a court for the county of Philadelphia; prescribing its jurisdiction and powers; providing for the service of its writs, process or warrants by the proper officers of the county or city of Philadelphia; regulating the procedure therein, and appeals therefrom, and providing for the expenses thereof,' by providing compensation to be paid to the Clerk of the Municipal Court, the principal deputy clerk, and the second deputy clerk," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 219 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. MILLAR offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered, and adopted.

In the Houses of Representatives, March 16, 1927.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 219, Printer's No. 19, File Folio 67, entitled "An act to fix the salaries of the deputy register clerks and employes in the office of the register of wills of counties of the first class," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 10.

Mr. LOTZ. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent at this time to call up Concurrent Resolution No. 8.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none. The Clerk will read the resolution.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

Whereas There has been introduced in the House of Representatives of the General Assembly for the Session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven a bill known as House Bill number one thousand one hundred forty-six entitled "An act to establish in the Department of Public Instruction a fund for the purpose of insuring school buildings against loss by fire creating a board to administer the fund providing methods of administration and making an appropriation for the expense of initiating the fund" and

Whereas The passage of the bill might tend to improve the financial condition of school districts by affecting a saving to districts of amounts paid for fire protection and

Whereas The Department of Public Instruction and the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth acknowledge merit in said bill but are not fully agreed as to the proper method of administration thereof and

Whereas A proper study should be made of a matter of such vital importance to the school districts before any action is taken thereon therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the said House Bill number one thousand one hundred forty-six be referred to the Superintendent of the Department of Public Instruction and the Insurance Commissioner as a commission to make a study of the provisions of said bill and generally of the subject of the economical insurance of school property with the request that they present their conclusions thereon to the Session of the General Assembly to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION NO. 8 CONCURRED IN BY SENATE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 15, 1927.

Whereas There has been introduced in the House of Representatives of the General Assembly for the Session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven a bill known as House Bill number one thousand one hundred forty-six entitled " An act to establish in the Department of Public Instruction a fund for the purpose of insuring school buildings against loss by fire creating a board to administer the fund providing methods of administration and making an appropriation for the expense of initiating the fund" and

Whereas The passage of the bill might tend to improve the financial condition of schools districts by affecting a saving to districts of amount paid for fire protection and

Whereas The Department of Public Instruction and the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth acknowledge merit in said bill but are not fully agreed as to the proper method of administration thereof and

Whereas A proper study should be made of a matter of such vital importance to the school district before any action is taken thereon therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the said House Bill number one thousand one hundred forty-six be referred to the Superintendent of the Departmentment of Public Instruction and the Insurance Commissioner as a commission to make a study of the provisions of said bill and generally of the subject of the economical insurance of school property with the request that they present their conclusions thereon to the Session of the General Assembly to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine

EXPOSITIONS ON REPEALS.

HOUSE BILL No. 478.

1881, May 10, P. L. 17, No. 21. (ANTHRACITE MINES.)

This act provides proper means of conveyance of persons injured in or about the mines to their homes, and is supplied by the Act of June 2, 1891, P. L. 176. Pepper and Lewis's Digest consider Section 6 of this act which is a penal clause, as being in force, but is not so considered by Purdon. The Digest of Anthracite Mining Laws of 1914, issued by the Commonwealth, omits this act entirely. It is pertinent to note that the first three sections of this act have been amended by the act of May 25, 1883, P. L. 45. This amendment will be repealed by this act at its proper place.

HOUSE BILL No. 592.

1863, August 7, P. L. (1868) 323. (JUDICIAL DISTRICTS).

This act designates the several judicial districts of the Commonwealth, and the number of judges in each district, and is supplied by the act of July 18, 1901, P. L. 669. It is so considered by Purdon's Digest and by Pepper and Lewis's Digest with the exception of Sections 8 to 11, inclusive. These last named sections obviously fall with the rest of the act and have therefore been incorporated notwithstanding the view taken by the last named Digest.

HOUSE BILL No. 605.

1885, June 30, P. L. 218. (ANTHRACITE MINES.)

This Act provides for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the anthracite mines of Pennsylvania and for the protection and preservation of property therewith connected, It is supplied by the anthracite mine act of June 2, 1891, P. L. 176, and its amendments, being so considered by the state publication of the "Anthracte Mining Laws" of 1914 as well as Purdon's Digest. Pepper and Lewis's Digest considers this act supplied with the exception of Article XIII which is cited in the Digest. It seems this article in view of the foregoing is also supplied.

HOUSE BILL No. 1103.

1887, March 24, P. L. 14. (COMMON PLEAS.)

This Act relating to the assignment of judges to assist in the trial of causes in other judicial districts has been supplied by the Act of April 27, 1911, P. L. 101, which furnishes a complete system on this subject.

HOUSE BILL No. 1098.

1887, May 19, P. L. 131. (ATTORNEYS.)

This is an amendment of the Act of May 7, 1885, P. L. 16. The Act of 1887 has been declared unconstitutional in 123 Pa. 527, but the decision was declared dictum in 231 Pa. 485. It is entirely supplied by the Act of May 8, 1909, P. L. 475, the constitutionality of which has been upheld in the case cited.

HOUSE BILL No 1101.

1887, May 12, P. L. 98, No. 49. (APPORTIONMENT.)

This act apportions the State into representative districts and fixes the number of representatives in the General Assembly in each district. It is supplied by the Act of February 15, 1906, P. L. 21, and now by the apportionment act of 1921.

HOUSE BILL No. 1102.

1887, April 13, P. L. 23. (MILITIA.)

This act provides for the organization, discipline and regulation of the National Guard. It is supplied by the Act of May 5, 1911, P. L. 131, and now by later acts.

HOUSE BILL No. 1104.

1887, March 22, P. L. 7, No. 6. (SALARIES.)

This act provides for a corporation clerk in the office of the State Treasurer and fixes his salary. It is supplied by the Act of June 14, 1911, P. L. 910.

HOUSE BILL No. 1105.

1887, March 4, P. L. 4, No. 3. (SALARIES.)

The act provides for the salaries of certain State officers and is supplied by the following acts: As to Deputy Attorney General and employes in the office of Attorney General, by the Act of April 29, 1913, P. L. 131; as to employes and keeper of State Arsenal by the Act of June 1, 1911, P. L. 624.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker, I move this House do now adjourn until Monday evening, March 21, 1927, at 9:00 o'clock.

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to and (at 11.45 o'clock A. M.) the House adjourned until Monday evening March 21, 1927 at 9.00 o'clock.

ERRATA.

In the Legislative Journal of March 1, 1927, on page 718 the record showing a resolution introduced by Mr. Richardson and the remarks on the resolution should be corrected to read Mr. Richards in both instances.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1927 — 127th of the General Assembly

Vol. 10. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MARCH 21, 1927. No. 27

SENATE.

MONDAY, March 21, 1927.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock P. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mrs. VARE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

O God, standing on the threshold of Nature's resurrection we see Thy great plan and purpose in creation. Intelligence everywhere and back of that intelligence a personality. And back of that personality God.

And we can see Thy great plan and purpose concerning ourselves. Thou hast spared our lives to meet once more in this Senate Chamber. We thank Thee for these things. Help us to live in harmony with these great laws that we see all about us, that we may have better bodies, better health, better minds.

Help us to find Thy plan in our creation, so that we may help Thee further the cause of that great panacea, the universal brotherhood of man.

Bless our courts. Bless our Governor. Bless our Lieutenant Governor. Bless all the men and women in the State that have anything to do with its advancement. And we will give Thee the praise now and forever, Amen.

PETITION.

FAVORING THE PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL No. 541.

The CHAIR presented petition of citizens of Allegheny and Westmoreland Counties, praying for the passage of House Bill No. 541.

Which was referred to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 126, entitled:

An Act providing for the examination and inspection of the books papers property assets and resources of persons copartnerships and corporations engaged in business as stock brokers by the Department of Banking and providing for the taking over and dissolution of such business in certain cases

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend title, line 4 by inserting after the word "banking" the following: "and for the assessment of the costs of such examination against such persons, copartnerships and corporations"; also section 2 by adding at the end thereof the following Paragraph: "(c) All expenses incurred in and about the conduct of the business of the Department in connection with the affairs of persons, copartnerships and corporations engaged in business as stock-brokers in this Commonwealth, including the cost of the regular examinations of such persons, copartnerships and corporations, the compensation of the secretary, deputies, examiners and other employes of the department shall be charged to and paid by the persons, copartnerships and corporations subject to the supervision of the Department under the provisions of this act, in equitable proportions, at such times and in such manner as the Secretary of Banking shall by general rule or regulation annually prescribe. The expenses incurred in connection with any special examination or investigation of any such person, copartnership or corporation, including a proportionate part of the salary of any examiner or other employe of the Department engaged in such examination or investigation shall be charged to and paid by such person, copartnership or corporation. On failure or refusal of any such person, copartnership, or corporation, after thirty days written notice to pay any sum lawfully assessed or charged against him or it by the secretary, under the provisions of this clause, the secretary may, at his option, bring an action at law to recover the same."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 177, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing that no bank banking company banking institution savings bank trust company title insurance company or other corporation authorized to receive deposits or carry on a banking or trust business and no individual partnership or unincorporated association carrying on a banking business shall establish maintain or operate a branch bank branch office suboffice subagency or branch place of business within the Commonwealth for the transaction of any part of its his or their business authorizing the continuance of branches suboffices and subagencies legally established or for which buildings were in the course of erection or for which title in fee or leasehold was taken prior to the approval of this act by such banks banking companies banking institutions savings banks trust companies title insurance companies or other corporations authorized to receive deposits or carry on a banking or trust business or by individuals partnerships or unincorporated associations carrying on a banking business with the right to relocate the same subject to the approval of the Department of Banking and repealing inconsistent laws be recommitted to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, this motion is not made for the purpose of delay but for the purpose of an additional amendment.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, my discussion will not be on the merits of the bill but as to the motion. This bill was introduced on February the 8th. We had a hearing, a public hearing. The representatives on both sides were given an opportunity to be heard. The bankers and the attorneys used their vacation to come to Harrisburg—on that legal holiday of this State. From that date until the present, or, rather, until last Wednesday, we had weekly meetings. We had a sub-committee appointed, and we had weekly meetings of the sub-committee with the lawyers and the bankers representing both the eastern and the western parts of the State:. Every opportunity was offered, every consideration was given, so that the sense and appreciation of the value and the importance of this piece of legislation for the State of Pennsylvania; every protection was made in the amendments to this bill to not have any person injured in any financial way,—not for a single dollar. And every chance, every suggestion and every plea was met with. And they come at this late hour—from February 22nd to March the 21st—and ask us now to recommit the bill for amendment.

Not being protected or not being in position to offer the amendment at this hour is ill-becoming of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Daix.

I have the greatest respect for the situation of the representatives in the House and the Senators from Philadelphia in connection with this bill, but appeal to the Sennate not to recommit this bill for amendment. If it is to be amended, let it be amended on the floor of the House. This is a Senate bill. It can be amended in the House. It can be amended in committee over there. It can be amended on the floor over there. But our labors are labors lost, our consideration is condemned, our position is made nil insofar as our efforts to bring before this Senate, this body which is recognized not only in this State but throughout the nation as a body of men of consideration, of deliberation, of knowledge.

I do not stand here to make a pronunciation of the position that we occupy, but I do stand here as the sponsor of this bill to show and to prove to this Senate and to the people of Pennsylvania that no man or no committee has gone further and operated in a more considerate sense in the interests of this State than the members of the committee have acted.

They may say in argument to what I am saying, that I loaded the sub-committee. There was no intention to load it. I put a democrat on the committee. I put the President Pro Tempore from Philadelphia, on the committee, I put a representative from Potter County on the committee, I put a representative from Dauphin County on the committee, and I put myself on the sub-committee.

Now I go back. We had twenty-one members in the general meeting. On the following morning seventeen of the twenty-one voted in the affirmative on this bill to be reported out,—in the affirmative. If it is the proposition to change the nature, to eliminate a section of the bill and put in an amendment, let that be done not in this body but let the action of the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, and of the sub-committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, be considered by this Senate.

I ask for the passage of this bill. It is on record. I ask for the vote against this motion, and if they want to operate on the opposite side in the House, let them operate there; but let the Senate recognize that it has done its duty through its chairman and its committee.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I do not want to speak on the merits of the bill but on the motion I made. May I correct my colleague Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, by giving me even more time than the time he alluded to, from the 22nd of February to this date, March 21st, but I will say from the 1st of February, when the bill was introduced, to the present when we had the bill in committee and there have been amendments made to it. But I say, without fear of contradiction, after two members—and one not a member of the sub-committee called my attention to the matter—that in this bill by the eliminating of one word, by making that amendment, might pacify everybody concerned; and that is my reason. Men who opposed the bill are the men who suggested the matter to me; and therefore I make the suggestion that the bill be recommitted for that purpose

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Daix, I would say that if he had this information within fifteen minutes before the convening of this body he could have had the amendment made, and the sense of that word he speaks of could be considered by the members of the Senate.

Therefore, it is not necessary. If that word that he speaks of is essential to the legality and the constitutionality of this Act, it can be inserted in the House. I do not know what the word it. Nobody else knows. That information has not been conveyed to us. Therefore I appeal to this Senate with all the sense and knowledge I can convey I ask you to defeat this motion, and pass this bill as a Senate Bill. We are not concerned, nor are we disturbed by what the House may do. That is their business, as a branch of the legislative body of this State. We have no control over them. It they want to defeat it or amend it, it is up to them. But this is a Senate Bill. Therefore I ask the Senate to sustain not only the committee, the sub-committee and those who have acted in all fairness and in all decency to protect every interest in this State against every question as to the legality of their present position against any further invasion of branch banks.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, on the motion, no one questions the decency of the committee whatever. They acted properly as all committees generally do in the Senate. I still make that as a motion.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, it does seem to me that where it is agreed that if there are further amendments to this measure that ought to be made they can be made in the House Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, and it would be proper for this motion not to prevail. We all agree that this is an important measure. After the passage of the McFadden-Pepper bill, if we did not pass legislation of this kind—

Mr. DIAX. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Daix will state his point of order.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, my point of order is that the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, is not speaking on the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. DAIX is well taken.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I say I hope the motion will not prevail, as we are getting on toward the end of the session, and whatever amendments should be made can be made in the House and the interests that are to be looked after will be looked after, and so that no part of the State would be injured by passing the bill in the form in which it is now. What harm can there be by putting it over to the House and letting whatever amendments there may be necessary be made by their committee?

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DAIX and Mr. ARON, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—9

Aron,	Hunsicker,	MacDade,	Vare,
Daix,	Kitts,	Salus,	Woodward.

So the question was determined in the negative.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate bill No. 177, as follows

An Act providing that no bank banking company banking institution savings bank trust company title insurance company or other corporation authorized to receive deposits or carry on a banking or trust business and no individual partnership or unincorporated association carrying on a banking business shall establish maintain or operate a branch bank branch office suboffice subagency of branch place of business within the Commonwealth for the transaction of any parts of its his or their business authorizing the continuance of branches suboffices and subagencies legally established or for which buildings were in the course of erection or for which title in fee or leasehold was taken prior to the approval of this act by such banks banking companies banking institutions savings banks trust companies title insurance companies or other corporations authorized to receive deposits or carry on a banking or trust business or by individuals partnership or unincorporated associations carrying on a banking business with the right to relocate the same subject to the approval of the Department of Banking and repealing inconsistent laws

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonnwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That no bank banking company banking institution savings bank trust company title insurance company or other corporation now or hereafter authorized to receive deposits or to carry on a banking or trust business whether incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania or of any other state or of the United States of America and no individual partnership or unincorporated association carrying on a banking business shall establish maintain or operate either directly or indirectly any branch bank branch office agency suboffice subagency or branch place of business within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the transaction of any part of its his or their business but all of the business of such corporations individuals partnerships and unincorporated associations shall be carried on solely and exclusively at its his or their principal place of business

Section 2 This act shall not apply to branches suboffices and subagencies legally established or for which buildings were in the course of erection or for which title in fee or leasehold was taken prior to the approval of this act by banks trust companies title insurance companies or other corporations authorized to receive deposits or carry on a banking or trust business or by individuals partnerships orunincorporated associations carrying on a banging business with the right to relocate the same subject to the approval of the Department of Banking

Section 4 The Act of Assembly approved July twenty-eighth one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws page one thousand two hundred thirty-five) entitled "A supplement to an act approved the thirteenth day of May eighteen hundred and seventy-six entitled 'An act for the incorporation and regulation of banks of deposit' and authorizing the creation and maintenance of suboffices or subagencies" and all other acts of assembly or parts of acts of assembly inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I regret to take up the time of the Senate in speaking against this bill, in view of the fact that the roll has just been called, but I believe I owe it to my colleagues in Philadelphia and my constituents to say a word about this bill.

The Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, who spoke on the motion,—his memory will serve him on the very point I will speak of now, in reference to the Bill No. 177, known as the branch banking bill. May I call the attention of the members of the Senate to Section 3, line 10. That portion of this bill, Mr. President, states: "The provisions of this Act are severable and if any of the provisions thereof are held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act.

In the bill as amended, on page 2, line 11, the word "maintain" comes in; and I say to the members of the Senate that if for any reason the court should decide on that portion of the bill the amendment is unconstitutional, the bill would stand as it was introduced in the beginning; and therefore we would be unable in Philadelphia as well as in other places in the State to maintain a branch bank. And the members of the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, when I named a figure before that committee of what this meant to the trust companies and the banks in Philadelphia I apologized, almost, at that time, and I said the figures seemed almost absurd; but in to-night's paper, in "The Evening Bulletin"—not by certain genlemen making a statement, but a statement made by the paper itself,—and therefore you will not wonder at my anxiety—not of opposing this bill if it did not hit Philadelphia, but it does; and in the "Bulletin" of this evening, on the last page of the first part, it states here, "The measure, which carries a Philadelphia amendment to exclude present branches, of which properties worth $100,000,000 are operating in Philadelphia, has been reported out of committee".

That, we will say, is a tremendous figure; but I have clippings here from four other papers that give an idea of the vast sum of money involved in this; and if you Senators from up-State are taking the position that you are afraid that under the Pepper-McFadden Bill the United States, bank is going to come in and take away your business, I say, in justice give me the opportunity of making that amendment, so that if that is stricken out, particularly the part that amendment is in, we cannot maintain one branch bank in Philadelphia.

Have I not the same right to think of my people as have the Senator from up-State? I am here trying only to protect, and I am saying to you Senators that this bill means a great deal to us. I have here, if I can just place my hands on it, an answer to a communication I sent out. There are forty-eight banks in Philadelphia operating seventy-nine branches at the present time. In the eight largest of these banks there are 128,471 depositors. In the thirty-five smaller ones and the five saving funds, there are 1,150,489 depositors.

I say to you, it means something to us,—it means a great deal. True enough, we have had amendments placed in the bill, for which we thank the committee,—amendments that allow us at the present time the branch banks already erected to remain, or those that have lease-holds or that own property in fee simple. That part of the bill is satisfactory if it does not become a boomerang and, instead of the gun going off one way it should shoot back and hit us; and I say that there is no question whatever that under the provisions of this bill if that amendment is declared unconstitutional we cannot maintain one branch bank in the City of Philadelphia.

That is exactly how the bill stands; and, therefore, members of the Senate, I would ask you that when you vote upon the bill,—my motion to recommit was lost—when you vote upon the bill, give me the same chance as you want. And I would be opposed to the bill as it now stands.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I do not believe that in this history of this Senate, outside of possible one Act of Assembly— and that is the Workmen's Compensation Act—that any bill has occupied more time than has this bill. There has never been more conscientious thought of help and assistance of the subagencies established under the Act of 1917, to protect every dollar of investment, every dollar of profit, every dollar of improvements ,every dollar of furniture—such as the vaults. We have gone so far as to show,—in the appellate court—that this is a compromise bill. Any learned judge, any learned lawyer that reads this bill can appreciate the fact in its title, in the third section and in the fourth section,—that they have surrounded it with all the protection that could possibly be given to the problem of branch banks.

Our friends from Philadelphia who have exercised the right and privilege of establishing bank agencies—not branch banks—have tried to convert us to the thought that we should leave Philadelphia out of this Act. The McFadden-Pepper Act provides that in any State that has any law on its statute books that prohibits branch banks, national banks cannot create national branch banks. It was in anticipation of that Act passing,—and why was that anticipation formulated in the minds of the people of Pennsylvania?

It is a long story, and yet short in the telling. I was in California in 1926 and part of 1927. When I left California the Bank of Italy had, I think, one hundred and seventy-two banks—not branch banks, remember, but they bought out and consolidated and now hold in their grasp more than three hundred and forty banks, and have thirty-five thousand directors. They have over one million four hundred thousand depositors. They have under their jurisdiction over two billions of dollars. That is one of the operations of the McFadden Act.

I want to be distinctly understood that in this State we have banking institutions that have been in existence a century, a great number of them for three generations, and even more of them for two generations in our towns and hamlets throughout this State, and if we do not prepare ourselves against further invasion I cannot and no other person can predict how far-reaching these branch banks would invade the interior and exterior and the very fiber of our banking institutions of this State.

We are not legislating for Philadelphia nor for Pittsburgh nor for any other section of this State. We are legislating for this whole State. And I stand here without feor of contradiction and say that this bill is a protective bill. It is the most honest piece of legislation in reference to this question against monopolization in any proposition of business or otherwise, but particularly the banking business. And no person can deny that we are protecting those who exercised their rights under the Act of 1917, that gave them the right to open agencies.

What are the agencies for? These things all come out in committee meeting. Agencies are for the receiving of deposits, the payment of checks, offering of paper and the payment of that paper when due.

What have they got to do? Under the Act of 1917 they have to close the bank at three o'clock in order to make a record of every deposit received, every check that was cashed, every note that was paid, every note that was offered; and all the moneys they have received has got to be taken down to the parent bank, the parent bank, and put into its vaults.

I say only this, then: If you are interested in the government of Pennsylvania, if you are interested in its future, if you have a sence of principle in your body politic,—recognize this as a piece of protective legislation for the benefit of the people of Pennsylvania. I cannot be too emphatic, and I do not want this to be misunderstood—that any act or deed on my part or on the part of the sub-committee or on the part of the general committee is aimed to defeat or hinder the City of Philadelphia.

Hundreds of millions! Why, last week one newspaper had it that we were destroying a hundred millions of dollars' worth of property,—even the real estate which their subagencies were built on and run on. What ridiculous propaganda that was. Not a single thing has been said in a single newspaper since the committee, on last Wednesday, reported this bill with an affirmative recommendation for passage.

If there is any man in the Senate, it is not I, that will injure Philadelphia; but I do not want the members of the Senate to think—and I don't think they want to think, themselves, that Philadelphia is the only part of this State that should exist. I want them to consider that there are other places in this State that should be considered and be permitted to live.

Therefore, I appeal to the members of this Senate to pass this bill as a Senate bill, and let us depend on the judgment and the knowledge of the members of the General Assembly to cooperate with us when it comes over there.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I heard our dear friend, the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, say that Philadelphia wanted to be left out. It is true we like to be left out; but instead of being left out, it looks as if our suburban friends are going to take us in, close the door, give us a first-class lacing, and send us back to Philadelphia; and, of course, we are so used to it down there that we will not mind it so very much.

But I hope the time will come, in some Act of Assembly, in some time or on some occasion,—it may be long after my time when our friends from the suburban district will come to the conclusion that Philadelphia really is a part of Pennsylvania. We down in Philadelphia are proud of the State of Pennsylvania. We love every one of its institutions. We love every Senator, every Representative from every town,—sent here as representing that particular district. We want you to understand that we believe you are our brother or our sister; and we sincerely hope that the time will come when you members from the suburban districts will also believe that we from Philadelphia are your brothers and sisters, and that we are one and all representatives of a great one-county State, that these boundary lines between counties do not exist, and that the Legislature in Pennsylvania will be all for one and one for all.

But at this time, the only reason I get up is, I want to pay my respects to the chamelion and the kaleidoscopic nature of the representatives from Allegheny County When they want the help of Philadelphia they are urban people; and when they want the help of the county people they are suburban people. They are never anywhere except in that position which will take care of their own interests. They are not built of the same nature, the same character and with the same standards and the same citizenship that we in Philadelphia are. They are for themselves. They are urbanites when they need Philadelphia, suburbanites when they need the counties.

We know that we are going to be beaten on this bill, and maybe, from the viewpoints of the various counties, they may be right at this time. I have no feeling in the matter, and I want all my fellow-members in the Senate to believe that. Maybe from their view point they are right, but let us hope that at some time in the near future all of them will believe that we from Philadelphia are part of the State of Pennsylvania: Particularly I address this to our friends from Allegheny C unty.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to answer my friend, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus. I never canvassed a member of this Senate in my lifetime,—and I am serving eight years in this Senate,—for any particular piece of legislation that I was interested in for Allegheny County, —and I desire the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, to ask himself if that is not so.

This is not a body of solicitation, this a body of intelligent persons who know what is right and what is wrong, who have judgment premier; and I have every confidence in their actions. Their vote to me is nil—whether it be against Allegheny County or any other part of the State. I am not appealing for Allegheny County; I am appealing for the State of Pennsylvania. And I do not like the personal reference made to me by my friend, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, inasmuch as, because of the friendship that exists between us, he knows well,—and every other member of this Senate knows well, that I never solicted or asked for a single vote on a single measure in the Senate. That is common everyday, district politics, but that kind of politics does not exist in this Senate; and I hope it never will. I have never been a party to it, nor will I ever be a party to it.

If there is not merit in this bill,—the best that can be put in it, in the judgment of this Senate, then defeat the bill,—not because Philadelphia stands out by itself. Allegheny County has not any branch banks. Western Pennsylvania and the interior do not want branch banks. But my friends have seen fit to make me an object—I know it was not abusive, it was in the sense of calling attention to my ardent interest in this bill.

So I say again to you, defeat any legislation that I propose that is against your judgment; and you will wait as long as your life,—because I will never solicit your vote when in doubt on any problem. If you recognize our community, then we ask you to recognize it. But this is not Allegheny County; it is the whole State of Pennsylvania that I am appealing for.

Mr. DAIX. Mr President, just one word. I do not want to occupy any long time. I have in my hand an Act to Provide for Consolidation of national banking associations, approved February 25, 1927, known as the Pepper-McFadden Bill. I do not think the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, has read it entirely through.

I want to say to the members of the Senate, "Do not be afraid of national banks overrunning your counties, because, if my memory serves me correctly, under the Revised Statutes of the United States, Section 5155, page 5, section d, it states: No branch shall be established after the date of the approval of this Act within the limits of any city, town, or village of which the population by the last decennial census was less than twenty-five thousand." Then, without taking up your time, it goes along and it names different municipal units such as do not exceed exceed fifty thousand and one hundred thousand; but in the end it shows this one thing,—in such municipalities where the population should exceed one hundred thousand or otherwise, the determination of the number of branches shall be within the discretion of the Comptroller of the Currency. So, after all, the Comptroller of the Currency has the say whether or not.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows:

VETO OF SENATE BILL No. 106.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 16, 1927.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith without my approval Senate Bill No. 106, entitled, "An act validating certain proceedings and elections of counties, cities, boroughs, townships, school districts, and other incorporated districts or municipalities had and held pursuant to the provisions of an act approved the twentieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws sixty-five) entitled, 'An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof' and the amendments and supplements thereto and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance to such proceedings and elections."

This bill is identical with Act No. 5 of the present session approved the second day of March, 1927.

Obviously there is no occasion to include in the Pamphlet Laws for 1927 two identical acts.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, March 21, 1927.

The House met at 9:00 o'clock P. M.
The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God Thou art the author and source of all wisdom and of all power and of all authority. We are limited in these attributes which are infinite in Thee. Our little systems have their day; they have their day and cease to be; they are but broken lights of Thee. Thou, Oh God, art more than they. Impress these truths upon us. Help us to realize the imperfection of all of our systems of government and of law. Give unto us the charity to enable us to see that so long as men are free, intelligent living beings, instead of rocks and stones that there will exist the conditions which we deplore so much until the only force back of law and of government becomes the law of love; that love is the solution of all the problems that our government and of every other government in the world today faces, and when we love our neighbors as ourselves there will not exist in human society the ills which exist today. May Thy blessing be upon the Speaker and upon the members of this House tonight. Impress upon all of us the sacredness of making laws. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of the proceedings of Wednesday, March 16, 1927.

Mr. WETTACH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MARCUS, Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, page 1, line 7, by striking out the bracket before the word "which"

Amend Sec. 1, page 1, line 9, by striking out the bracket after the word "elected"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. VOLTZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Law and Order Committee be discharged from the further consideration of House Bill No. 195, entitled:

An Act relating to Sunday sports, amusements and entertainments; providing for local elections to permit the use of public parks therefor; and to permit the licensing of Sunday sports, amusements and entertainments; providing for such licensing when so authorized; and making it unlawful in certain cases to conduct or participate in sports, amusements, or entertainments on Sunday.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Armstrong, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just rise to make an explanation concerning this bill. The bill was referred to the Committee on Law and Order with a number of others and when we had our meeting of the Law and Order Committee it was one of the first bills to be laid before the Committee. On the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia the bill was laid on the table temporarily. On two occasions since that I have asked the gentleman from Philadelphia if he desired me to call the Committee together to act on his bill and he assured me that there was no reason for any hurry, so I do not understand his action tonight.

The Chairman of the Law and Order Committee stands ready to assemble that Committee at any time to take action on any bill that is in the Committee.

Mr. VOLTZ. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I asked Mr. Armstrong previous to introducing this resolution whether he thought the bill had any chance to be adopted by the committee and he assured me it had not, but that he was willing to call the committee together to act on it. We have only four more weeks here and I don't want to be a party to retard the doings of this Legislature by long and unnecessary committee meetings. I want to get through with what I have got to do as quick as I can and I thought the only proper thing for me to do under the circumstances was to offer my resolution tonight and have the question settled. I asked the Speaker when I introduced the resolution for immediate action.

I am representing over 500,000 signers for this bill and there is no member of the Legislature who ever sat within these walls or the old walls, that has ever come in here with a bill with that many actual signers, not names taken out of directories and telephone books, but signers signed with their own name and address and occupation of over a half million people, people that want some action on this bill; they want to find out how it stands. If we are for a liberal Sunday, they want to know it. If we want to continue under the old rule and be one hundred years back why they want to know it. All the states surrounding us, New Jersey, New York, Ohio————

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, according to the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, this is a resolution he has put in and under the rules it lies over for printing.

The SPEAKER. This a motion, and not a resolution and therefore does not lie over under the rules.

Mr. VOLTZ. All the surrounding states have Sunday sports and amusements. Now when I offered this bill I took every member of the House into consideration, I took the Senate into consideration and I took the Governor into consideration, I placed in it a referendum relieving the responsibility of the House and the Senate and the Governor if he signs it. It is up to the people of each city, town and hamlet to vote at next fall's election as to whether they want it or not and I think it is high time that we should give the people of this State once in a while an important matter of this kind. When I say to you on the face of it, and I have the evidence to prove it, that I have over 500,000 signers for this bill. I am opposed to a repeal of the blue laws; I am opposed to amusements and sports or anything else that will interfere with the morning church services because I think the church is a grand and glorious institution and that sports and nothing else should interfere with it, but I do think that even those that do go to church want sports and amusements of some kind after they get through. The bill states what these sports are and does not call for prize fighting, horse racing, baseball, golf, tennis. I have had business men and bankers send me letters and I have even had telephone messages lauding me for introducing this bill.

Why, they cannot play golf on Sunday in our country clubs around Philadelphia because it is against the blue law. Now, before you vote on this question take this into consideration. You need not be ashamed to go back to your constitutents you have got a good argument with them if they don't want it they can vote against it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Witkin and Mr. Lucas.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 739, (Senate Bill No. 127) file folio 61, entitled:

An Act providing for the examination and inspection of the books papers property assets and resources of persons co-partnerships and corporations engaged in business as stock brokers by the Department of Banking and providing for the taking over and dissolution of such business in certain cases

Brokers Subject to Examination on page 23 of today's calendar, bills on second reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special for consideration and a hearing.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House on the motion to recommit this bill I wish the members of this House would vote it down. There has been considerable activity in behalf of this bill. Many meetings have been held in the Judiciary Special Committee for the specific purpose of reporting this bill to the floor of the House and if my recollection is correct out of sixteen members voting in the committee fourteen members voted for this bill to be reported out as committed. This bill is known as a referendum. It is a bill pertaining to Allegheny County and it provides that a referendum shall be held in the fall election of this year wherein the people shall vote as to whether or not the city police and firemen shall be entitled to an increase. It is a fair, honest, constructive piece of legislation. It deserves the consideration of the members of this House, and the effort to recommit the bill is not fair in view of the strenuous fight that was made to place this bill on the calendar. It is entitled to your consideration and I sincerely hope and trust that you will vote this motion down and permit this bill to be advanced to the third reading calendar and let the Governor decide whether or not he believes in a referendum of this nature. I again ask you to vote this motion down.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the maker of this motion, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Sowers, does not this bill only affect cities of the second class?

Mr. SOWERS. The bill affects cities of the second apparently, but I moved that the bill go back to the Committee because it is one of those, "Heads I win, tails you loose" bills. If you look at section 4 it says if the people vote against the raise they are still to have the raise. Therefore the bill ought to be amended so as to read, if the people vote against it they shall not have it.

Mr. STADTANDLER. May I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, who has made the request for a hearing.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the chairman of the committee is very sorry that this bill is out in the shape it is in, because the bill says that there shall be submitted to the people of second class cities the right to determine what a policeman's and fireman's wage shall be. In other words, that the people shall vote and fix their salary and then the bill says in section 4 "If the electors shall vote against said question the salary or compensation to be paid to patrolmen," and so forth, shall "be graduated according to the classifications established by section 1 of this act." So they have got a bill here saying to the people of second class cities, "Oh, you can vote, but if you vote "no," then we get the raise as fixed in the bill." Now, I am going along with the proposition that the people shall vote, but after the people have spoken I want the word of the people to stand and not have a catcher as there is here in section 4.

Mr. STADTLANDER. If there is a catcher in the bill, we have our troubles, and does it not only affect Pittsburgh. Why does Philadelphia need to worry about any catchers in the bill?

Mr. SOWERS. The gentleman from Pittsburgh should remember that I was sworn to support the whole constitution and serve all of Pennsylvania, and if Pittsburghers want to hand Pittsburgh a lemon let them do it.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia infer that there is a question of constitutionality in this bill?

Mr. SOWERS. No, I infer that it is, "Heads I win, tails you loose"

Mr. STADTLANDER. Speaking to me or of the bill generally.

Mr. SOWERS. The bill is inconsistent. It says in the first few sections that the people may vote on the question and then after that it says if they vote "no" the salaries shall be as we fixed it. Now, what sort of a bill is that.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems very strange that the gentleman from Philadelphia should take such an active interest in this bill, and especially since this bill was in committee for some considerable length of time without a demand being made for a hearing. It seems to me that the chairman of that committee was negligent in not calling a hearing when it should have been called. I am in favor of this bill for certain reasons, for I think that when the firemen and the police of the municipality are unjustly dealt with by any members of council or executive authority they have a right then to carry their appeal to the people. That is what the police of Pittsburgh together with the firemen are demanding of our city. The police and firemen of our town are underpaid and they are underfed, and if we are going to bring up the future Americans and if the police officers are to bring up their families and they cannot do it in the way that is respectable then we should cover our heads in shame. I ask you in all fairness to vote this motion down because you have had enough time to have had at least a half a dozen hearings, and the chairman has never called a meeting for one hearing. There I ask you to vote this motion down.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House in all fairness to the chairman of this committee, of which I am a member, I want to say to you that he has acted like a gentleman here. I want to just explain the situation about this bill and I am not going to spare anybody or save anybody, but I am going to tell you the truth. I raised the same objection to the bill when it first came to the committee that the chairman has just raised now. The language is inconsistent and I suggested to the policemen and to the committee that they amend it. There have been ugly stories coming back here from Pittsburgh, to the effect that the boys down here were trying to pickle their bill. We told them we were not trying to pickle their bill the trouble was back in Pittsburgh. They went to the state republican chairman and he said he was for the bill but they come back here again and say that orders were issued to kill the bill. For that reason we reported this bill out of committee to wash our hands of it. You can vote either for or against it but let the committee be discharged of it.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if you refer to page 2, line 16, you will find that that is not complete. In other words, the whole bill needs correction and I ask that it go back to the committee to be corrected. I ask you to vote aye on this motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 12, file folio 3195, entitled:

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Hermansen

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1051, entitled

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and seven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and sixty-four) entitled "An Act to increase the pay of jurors and witnesses in this Commonwealth" as amended

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to give my reason for bringing this bill up to be voted on. I want to call the attention of the members of the House to the fact that jurors have long been underpaid. I believe that jury service is a responsible position for any of us to hold, and it is not because we cannot get jurors to serve that I proposed this bill, but it is because I don't think they are fairly compensated for the work that they do. It is not a fair argument to say that because we can get jurors that they ought to serve for nothing, and I don't think it is any more fair to say that they ought to render that as a patriotic service then it would be to apply that same thing in a good many other cases. Now, we know that our patriotism like our religion depends on our love and our faith in our country and its institutions, and therefore I think that it is not increasing or it is not developing patriotism by insisting on this service being rendered without its being an absolute necessity. There is none of us but what would render jury service regardless of whether there was pay connected with it if it was an absolute necessity, but inasmuch as we can afford to give them a living, a decent compensation for their service, I think we should do it and that they should not be slighted because they are not organized to command political influence. Now, I believe that this House should go along for that reason more than anything else. Jurors then would feel that the lawmakers are willing to give them the same consideration as if they were organized into a body and could demand it. Now, we know very well if they had the same influence as the farmers, miners and railroaders that their rates would have been increased long ago. I don't think that there is any sense for withholding this dollar of an increase that is now being asked for and I would therefore ask the members of the House to vote in the affirmative on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—3

Bidelspacher, Brown, E. P., Moore, F. N.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Guerin.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 89, entitled

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section eighteen of article three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading,

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Guerin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GUERIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOWE. I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia what is the purpose of this bill or resolution?

Mr. GUERIN. To answer that question would take rather long and I would not care to make it directly, but if you care to have me discuss the bill first you will probably get the drift of it, that is, if you would rather have me do that.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this resolution does not commit the state to the payment of one cent to anyone. It merely paves the way for the people of the State to vote to sustain or reject the action of future Legislatures and to endorse or condemn the action of past Legislatures. On last Monady night when this bill was on the calendar I was asked to have it postponed until the Governor would know more about it. I saw the Governor last Tuesday and quoted to him extracts from his inaugural address as follows:

"The Legislature should be empowered to make appropriations to classes of institutions rather than to individual establishments, to be distributed in conformity with the standards of service prescribed by law."....."Accurate budgeting is of such supreme importance to the conduct of the public business that I strongly urge constitutional amendments to correct the situations to which I have referred." This is a quotation from the inaugural address of the Governor and he told me that he was for such actions now just as much as when he said it on the platform. Any member of this body if seriously injured on the highway and needed urgent medical attention would he or she hesitate to be brought to a sectarian institution when their life might be saved by speedy action. Further the Governor said that he had in mind the recommendation to the constitutional conventional of such an amendment to the constitution. The members well remember who were at the last legislature when we passed a law which gave the department of welfare an appropriation of $1,000,000.00 to be distributed to hospitals that we gave it to other than State owned hospitals. Upon inquiry we found that in the whole state of Pennsylvania, there were only ten paid hospitals, hospitals owned by the State, and in the City of Philadelphia there is not a single hospital governed by the State. Under the authority of the law that was passed the secretary of Welfare entered into a contract with a hospital in the city of Philadelphia, contracted for the taking care of injured and sick persons, and under that contract that hospital rendered services valued at $105,000. This service was rendered and the department was ready to pay it when the question was taken into the Supreme Court and there it is at the present time. I fully believe that if this legislature passed a law such as it has done and the question of constitutionality might arise that this would overcome it. I would remind you that this joint resolution must pass three sessions of the legislature, and be voted on by the people.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Guerin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Guerin permit himself to be interrogated.?

Mr. GUERIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I desire the ask the gentleman, if this resolution passed and the people voted favorably on it, whether the Legislature could appropriate to State college?

Mr. GUERIN. I believe they could.

Mr. ALEXANDER. How?

Mr. GUERIN. For the past one hundred years or more this Legislature passed such appropriations until four or five years ago when the question of constitutionality was raised and since that time while the Legislature has passed appropriations they were not pressed by these organizations, because they supposed they would meet with the same result.

Mr. ALEXANDER. If you will read section 18 it says: "No appropriation except for pensions or gratuities for military service shall be made for charitable educational or benevolent purposes," and therefore under that you could not even appropriatte to state college for educational purposes or to Temple University, for education of no kind could you appropriate any money.

Mr. GUERIN. No, I differ with the member. This resolution merely leaves out three or four words.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I desire to interrogate the gentleman further.

Would the gentleman care to place this joint resolution on the postponed calendar so that we can consult about the matter.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. GUERIN. Mr. Speaker, in order that this question may be clarified, I move you that House Bill No. 89, file folio 2265 be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Little.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1093, entitled:

An Act permitting adjacent cities boroughs towns and townships to enter into contracts for the furnishing of service by or to each other or portions thereof and providing for the collection and payment of the costs of such service

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. LITTLE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend bill, pages 3 and 4, by striking out all of section six being lines 24 to 28 inclusive on page 3, and lines 1 and 2 on page 4.

Amend bill, page 4, line 3, by striking out "7" and insert "6".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 916, as follows:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constiuttion having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 904, as follows:

An Act providing a method of annexation of boroughs townships or parts of townships or outlying lots to cities of the third class providing for the addition of such territory to adjacent ward o rwards of such cities or for the erection of such territory into a new ward or wards providing for the regulation of the indebtedness and assets of annexed territory regulating the proceedings pertaining to such annexation and repealing inconsistent legislation

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the autnority of the same That any borough township or part of a township or outlying lots in any township contiguous to any city of the third class whether wholly or partially within the same or different counties may become annexed to any such city of the third class in the following manner

In the case of a borough having a population of less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants the borough council shall and in the case of a borough having a population of ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants or more the borough council may pass an ordinance for such annexation whenever three-fifths of the taxable inhabitants of such borough shall present a petition asking therefor in the case of a township or part of a township whenever three-fifths of the taxable inhabitants of such township or part of a township or if there are no taxable inhabitants residing in a part of a township then whenever three-fifths of the owners of the land in a part of a township shall present a petition to the council of said city asking for such annexations

Before any such petition is circulated or signed notice thereof shall be given by advertisements once a week for four weeks in two newspapers published in or circulated throughout the territory to be annexed Such notice shall state the purpose of the petition and the date it will be ready for signing All such petitions shall be accompanied by a plot or plots of the territory to be annexed showing all streets and highways municipal improvements and public buildings provided that nothing in this act contained shall be deemed to require any city of the third class to annex any borough township or part of a township

Section 2 Upon presentation to the council of such city of a certified copy of the ordinance in case of a borough or of the petition in the case of a township or part of a township together with the required plots in any case said council of said city may by ordinance annex such borough township or part of a township to said city and certified copies of the borough and city ordinances and the petition and the plans shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter session of the said county

Section 3 After thirty days from the filing of the said annexation ordinance by the said city council such ordinance and the action of the said city council shall be finally conclusive unless a referendum petition be filed as is provided by the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred sixty-eight) its supplements and amendment or unless an appeal therefrom is taken within the said thirty days by petition to the court of quarter session of the county in which the city is located

If an appeal is taken by any person aggrieved by such annexation ordinance within thirty days of the filing thereof the court shall fix a day for hearing the same Notice shall be given to all parties interested in such manner as the court shall direct after such hearing the court shall decide whether the proceedings are in conformity with this act making an order or decree dismissing the appeal and approving the annexation or sustaining the appeal and dismissing the annexation The decision of the court of quarter sessions shall be final Upon the approval of the annexation ordinance by the court the annexation shall take effect immediately

Section 4 Upon application by petition signed by a majority or more of the taxable inhabitants on or in or the owners of any outlots or sections of land in a township containing not more than one hundred acres of land lying adjacent to any city of the third class and being part of the county in which the same is situated or upon application by petition of the council of any such city for the annexation of any out lots or sections of land as aforesaid to the court of quarter session or of the respective county stating that they desire the same to be annexed to said city the necessity therefore and describing the lots or land to be annexed with a map or draft of the same which petition shall be sworn to by one or more of the petitioners and accompanied by a resolution of the council of said city approving the annexation the said court shall thereupon appoint three viewers who shall be non-residents of the city or of the territory to be annexed to inquire into and investigate the allegations and facts stated in the said petition Notice of the first hearing of the said viewers shall be given to the city and to at least one of the petitioners as the court may direct The said viewers or a majority of them shall make report to said court at its next sessions after their appointment If they report that they find the statements and facts of said petition to be true and recommend the annexation as prayed for and no appeal is taken within thirty days therefrom the said court shall thereupon make an order or decree to carry the annexation into effect

If within thirty days after the filing of such report any person aggrieved thereby shall take an appeal by petition to the court of quarter sessions setting forth their complaint the court shall fix a day for hearing the same Notice thereof shall be given to all parties interested in such manner as the court shall direct After such hearing the court shall decide whether the proceedings are in conformity with this act and make an order or decree either dismissing the appeal and approving such annexation or sustaining the appeal Such decision of the court of quarter sessions shall be final

If the court makes an order to carry such annexation into effect either after an appeal and hearing thereon or where no appeal is taken the said out lots or sections of land shall thereafter be a part of said city as fully as if the same had been originally a part thereof

The viewers herein provided for shall be allowed five dollars per day for each and every day actually spent by them in the performance of their duties together with their actual necessary expenses The cost of the proceedings in all cases shall be paid by the city

Section 5 Within thirty days from the effective date of any such annexation the city council shall cause a petition to be presented to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the said city is located praying for the distribution of the annexed territory among the wards of the said city or for the creation of a new ward or wards out of the same as is provided by law and the said court shall in case of the creation of a new ward or wards appoint the election and other officers of the same and name the place or places of holding the first election in the said ward or wards for ward officers and for that purpose may order a special election if said court shall deem the same necessary to be conducted in the manner provided by law for conducting municipal elections The officers elected at such special election shall hold their respective offices until their successors who are hereby required to be elected at the municipal election held on the Tuesday following immediately after the first Monday of November in the odd numbered year next succeeding the same shall be duty qualified

Section 6 All the indebtedness of each borough or township annexed to a contiguous city under the provisions of this act as well as the indebtedness of the city to which the same is annexed shall be paid by the city as enlarged by such annexation and all territory included within the limits of the same shall be liable for the payment of the floating and bonded indebtedness and the interest thereon of all the territory included within such enlarged city and all taxes thereafter levied therefor shall be uniform through out the territorial limits of such enlarged city

Section 7 All of the public property owned by any borough or township hereinafter annexed to any city of the third class shall become and remain the public property of the said city

Section 8 Where any part of any township is hereinatter annexed to any city of the third class the township officers of that part of the said township not annexed and the city council of the said city shall make a just and proper edjustment and apportionment of all public property owned by the said township at the time of said annexation both real and personal including funds as well as indebtedness if any to and between the said township and the city In making such adjutsment and apportionment of the property and indebtedness the township and the city shall be entitled respectively to share in a division of the property and indebtedness in the proportion that the assessed valuation of the land remaining in the township bears to the assesed valuation of the land annexed The adjustment and apportionment as made shall be reduced to writing in proper form and duly executed and acknowledged by the proper officials and filed in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions in the county in which said city is located

Section 9 In case the said council of the said city and the township authorities cannot make such amicable apportionment and adjustment of their property and indebtedness in compliance with this act within six months after any such annexation then in that case the said council or any officer of the said township may present a proper petition to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the said city is located whereupon the said court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners residents and taxpayers of said county not residing in the said city nor in the said township who after hearing due notice of which shall be given to the city and township interested as the court may direct shall make report to the court making an apportionment and adjustment according to the provisions of this act of all the property as well as indebtedness if any to and between the said city and the said township said report to state the amount if any that shall be due and payable from the city to the township or from the township to the city as well as the amount of indebtedness if any that shall be assumed by the city or township or both of them

Section 10 The aforesaid commissioners shall give the said city and the said townshop at least five days notice of the filing of their report and unless exceptions are filed thereto by the city or by the township within thirty days after filing thereof the same shall be confirmed by the court absolutely and any sum awarded by said report to the said city or to the said township shall be a legal and valid claim in its favor against the city ortownship charged therewith and the amount of debt if any apportioned to any city or township shall be a legal and valid claim against such city or township charged therewith and any property real or personal given and adjudged to the city or the township shall become and be the property of the city or the township to whichever one the same is given and adjudged and upon such report being confirmed such claim or indebtedness charged against any city or township may be collected in the same manner as a judgment is collected against any city or township Such commissioners shall be allowed five dollars per day for each day actually spent by them in the performance of their duties together with their actual necessary expenses All costs and expenses of such proceedings shall be apportioned by the court to and between the said city and the said township as it shall deem proper

Section 11 In case exceptions are filed to the report of such commissioners the court shall dispose of the same taking testimony therein if deemed advisable and the decision of the court thereon shall be final and binding on the several cities and townships without any right of appeal

Section 12 In cases in which such cities or townships are situated in two or more counties the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the city is located shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the matter and in such case the court may appoint the commissioners hereinbefore provided for from any one or all of such counties

Section 13 The following acts and parts of acts are repealed so far as they relate to annexation to cities of the third class

The act approved the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand nine hundred and three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and thirty-two) entitled "An act for the annexation of any city borough township or part of a township to a contiguous city and providing for the indebtedness of the same"

The act approved the nineteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws two hundred sixteen) entitled "An act to amend section one of an act entitled 'An act for the annextion of any city borough township or part of a township to a contiguous city and providing for the indebtedness of the same' approved the twenty-eighth day of April Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and three providing for percentage of petitioners"

The act approved the tenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws five hundred one) entitled "An act to amend section six of an act entitled 'An act for the annexation of any city borough township or part of a township to a contiguous city and providing for the indebtedness of the same' approved April twenty-eighth one thousand nine hundred and three"

The act approved the sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seventy-two) entitled "A supplement to an act approved the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand nine hundred and three entitled 'An act for the annexation of any city borough township or part of a township to a contiguous city and providing for the indebtedness of the same' by providing that any city heretofore or hereafter enlarged by any ennexation under the terms of said act shall be liable for and shal pay the indebtedness of such city and the territory so annexed and providing for the levying of a uniform tax upon all the territory included within such city as enlarged by such annexation for the payment of all such indebtedness"

The following acts and parts of acts are repealed absolutely

The act approved the eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and seventy-nine) entitled "An act for the annexation of boroughs or townships or parts of townships to adjacent cities"

Article three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and sixty-eight) entitled "An act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto"

The act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and forty-three) entitled "An act to amend sections one three and five of article three of an act entitled 'An act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto' approved the twenty-seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen"

The act approved the sixth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and fifty-one) entitled "An act to amend section one of article three of an act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirteen entitled 'An act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto"

Sections three and four of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and ten) entitled "An act to amend and revise an act entitled 'An act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class reguating nominations and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto' approved the twenty-seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen enlarging changing modifying and defining certain of the powers of cities of the third class"

The act approved the eleventh day of July one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws one thousand forty-seven) entitled "An act providing a method of annexation of boroughs townships or parts of townships to cities of the third class regulating the proceedings pertaining thereto and repealing inconsistent legislation"

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Haas, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HAAS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman this: When the city acquires a part of a township, does it acquire the underlying assessed valuations?

Mr. HAAS. What is the question?

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. When the city of the third class acquires by annexation a part of a township, does it acquire the underlying assessed valuations?

Mr. HAAS. Why I would imagine so, yes, it does.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Does it according to this act?

Mr. HAAS. Yes.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. When the city acquires the territory in question, does it assume a portion of the indebtedness or the whole indebtedness?

Mr. HAAS. It assumes the indebtedness of that portion which is annexed.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Just that portion?

Mr. HAAS. Certainly not of the whole township, if they only take a certain portion of it.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Does the bill in any way determine what portoin of the indebtedness it acquires?

Mr. HASS. On that section that is annexed.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. In what way is that determined?

Mr. HAAS. Just bear with me one moment and I will show you the section that so provides. Read section eight of the act on page 8.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. What portion of the indebtedness does it assume?

Mr. HAAS. All of it in that part that the city is taking in.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. According to the act, the bill determines that amount of indebtedness in proportion to the assessed valuation of that part, does it not?

Mr. HAAS. I so understand it.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. According to this act, the bill provides that the assessed valuation determines the amount of indebtedness, does it not?

Mr. HAAS. Yes. You will see in section nine it says that the city council of the said city shall make a just and proper apportionment of the property owned by such township at the time of such annexation, both real and personal, including funds as well as indebtedness.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. According to this act, assuming the city has annexed a part of the township, is there any provision in this act that would compel the city to include the remainder of the township?

Mr. HAAS. No.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. There is not?

Mr. HAAS. No.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, according to this annexation act concerning third class cities, the city can annex by two methods the township or a part of a township or a borough. The first method is by a petition signed by three-fifths of the inhabitants, the taxable inhabitants of the township, and the second by the council of said city petitioning the court. By the first method, provided a city has within its territory three-fifths of the taxable inhabitants, by some method in can very readily receive a petition signed by three-fifths or a majority of the taxable inhabitants. By the second method the council may petition the court to annex a part of the township. Under this act, if this act should become a law, a city of the third class might reach out its arms and take in the most wealthy part of a township and annex that to the city. When the valuation is placed by the viewers assigned by the court, only a majority of the viewers can render a report and on this report the township is subjected to a division, provided there is constructed within said township any improvement, municipal improvement, that calls for a bonded indebtedness, the indebtedness so fixed by the court, or the majority of viewers, and determined by the assessed valuation. That indebtedness is thrown on to the remaining part of the people, the taxpayers of that township. I have no objection to a bill of this type affecting the townships of the first class when it can safeguard the rights of the remaining citizens, but when a bill of this type can reach its arms into a township one year and annex valuable section and then annex a part in the following year that would be assessed in a similar manner, until within a few years just the very richest part of the township would be annexed to the city, leaving a few remaining people to pay the indebtedness thrown upon that township, I think it is an unjust act and I would ask this House to vote down such a measure.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, just let me briefly say a word or two about this bill. In 1923, during the reign of Gifford Pinchot, there was an annexation bill relative to third class cities passed, passed by the House and Senate, and signed by the Governor, and that act is unworkable. The courts have construed the act in three or four different ways. This bill merely brings us back to the annexation law that we had prior to 1913. It does not give the cities of the third class any more right to annex than the boroughs now have. This bill gives the forty-one third class cities of the state the same right as the boroughs now have. This bill was prepared by the League of Third Class Cities, unanimously supported by the city council of the forty-one cities, and backed by the State Chamber of Commerce. I would ask you to pass this bill.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Haas, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HAAS. I will not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Lehigh stated that the present act provides that boroughs can annex townships or parts of townships, but he is in error. He also states that under this act they are only assuming the same permission or the same rights that now exist. The act as it is at the present time provides that the freeholdetrs shall have a say as to what becomes of the township or part of a township. In this act, if it becomes a law, the freeholder has nothing to say as to what shall become of the land that is included within this township. It states in this bill that only the taxable inhabitants can vote that is, if three fifths of the majority of the taxable inhabitants would vote a portion of the township into the city it could be annexed. Therefore, gentlemen, I ask you to read carefully this act before you vote on it, and would ask you to vote it down as it is a lame excuse for a good act.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, as a member of this House I addressed a communication to the school district of the board of education of Philadelphia asking for certain information. I do not wish to burden the House by reading the answer or by reading the correspondence, and I would ask that the House give me permission to have the same read into the Journal as though I had read it on the floor of the House.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give permission to have the correspondence and answer inserted in the Journal? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and permission is granted for such insertion.

Hon. Clinton A. Sowers, House of Representatives. Harrisburg, Pa.

My dear Mr. Sowers:

At a meeting of the Board of Public Education, held March 9, 1927, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

(See copy attached)

From the Minutes,
WILLIAM DICK
Secretary and Business Manager.

WD/HVH

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA
The Board of Public Education
Nineteenth Street above Chestnut

William Dick
Secretary and Business Manager

March 11, 1927.

Hon. Clinton A. Sowers, Stephen Girard Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

I am enclosing, herewith, a copy of the preambles and resolutions adopted by the Board of Public Education at its meeting on Tuesday afternoon, March 8, 1927.

This morning I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday stating that you had not yet received a reply to your letter of the 4th instant. In that letter you asked that the reply be sent to Harrisburg, and on Wednesday morning when the action of the Board was being typed I knew the Legislature had adjourned for the week and assumed that you would not be in the Capitol until Monday next, hence the delay in forwarding the action of the Board.

I am now sending, by special messenger, the Board's action to your Philadelphia office.

Very truly yours,
WM. DICK,
Secretary and Business Manager.

WD/HJ
Enclosure.

Whereas, the Honorable Clinton A. Sowers, a member of the State Legislature, has sent a communication to the Board of Public Education requestion information in reference to the employment of unnaturalized teachers in the public schools of Philadelphia:

Whereas, the following resolution was adopted by the Board of Public Education July 10, 1917:

> Resolved, That the teachers and other employees of the Board who are not citizens of the United States be required to at once declare their intention of becoming such, otherwise their positions to be declared vacant; and hereafter all applicants for teachers' certificates or for any position be required to prove their citizenship in the United States, or that they have made application to become citizens."

Whereas, The Board of Public Education of Philadelphia has not only done more than the state law requires in reference to the citizenship of teachers, but has gone further than almost any other community in assuring itself that the children of our schools would be taught by people of American citizenship and American ideals

Whereas, in response to a request by the President of the Board of Education made a few weeks ago the superintendent of schools directed the division of examinations to make a careful inspection of the list of all teachers in the city, in order to ascertain who, if any, have not complied with the above regulation, adopted July 10, 1917; and the result of this investigation, completed today, shows that there are not any who have failed to comply with this regulation as to American citizenship;

Resolved, therefore, that the results of this investigation be presented to the Honorable Clinton A. Sowers, in compliance with his request.

RESOLUTIONS IN REFERENCE TO THE REQUEST OF THE HONORABLE CLINTON A. SOWERS.

Whereas, the Honorable Clinton A. Sowers has also requested that he be furnished with a list of the names and addresses of all the applicants who applied for positions in the schools within the last two years and the averages which were assigned to them;

Whereas, Section 2228 of the School Laws of Pennsylvania requires that

> "Eligible lists, properly classified, containing the names of persons who have received certificates of qualification to teach, and arranged as nearly as possible in the order of rank or standing, shall be kept in the office of the Superintendent of Schools, and shall be open to inspection by members of the Board of Public Education, associate and district superintendents, principals, and school visitors";

Whereas, it is the practice of the Department of Superintendence also to permit any teacher who has taken the examination to ascertain his or her standing on the list, and to secure full information as to the elemnts entering into the rating;

Whereas, it is the plain intent of the law that the names and standings of teachers who have taken the examinations should not be given out to any excepting school officials mentioned in this section of the act, and that such records are a private matter between the Board and a teacher or such officials as are mentioned in the act and any departure from the intent of the law would be very embarrassing to teachers, and would be greatly resented by them as an invasion of their private rights; and if they knew officials of the Board were to give out information of this kind it would tend to shake their confidence in the Board and in its officials; and also that there is no secrecy contemplated in this law, as by its own provision the lists are already open to nearly six hundred officials;

Whereas, this request for a list of names, addresses, and standing of teachers who have applied for positions during the last two years would involve the preparation of a statement including nearly four thousand names together with other data;

Whereas, however, the request for such a list has come from a member of the State Legislature;

Resolved, That the Honorable Clinton A. Sowers be given an opportunity to inspect in the office of the Superintendent of Schools the list of all applicants, with addresses and standing, who have applied for positions in the public schools during the last two years. We are confident that such an inspection of the lists will reassure this member of the Legislature regarding the fair and impartial administration of the merit system in the public schools of Philadelphia.

Copy of letter, original of which was sent to Mr. Sowers, at Harrisburg.

March 11th, 1927.

Honorable Clinton A. Sowers, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

My dear Mr. Sowers: We beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of March 4th, 1927, reading as follows:

Civic Group, City Club of Philadelphia, No. 313 South Broad Street, Philadelphia.

Gentlemen: Your second report, dated March 1st, 1927, says that House Bill No. 635, introduced by me, should be opposed. I assume that you have studied the Bill. I thought it the most innocent piece of legislation offered this session. Can you give me any idea of what the present law, and the practice under that law, is and how my Bill will change that law and change that practice?

I don't want to put the old style politics into the educational system, nor do I want to continue the present style of clique politics. Of course you know that we will never be rid of politics as long as we are a Republic.

Expecting from you, since you have taken upon yourself the trouble to advise legislators, a full, detailed and logical statement of why the Bill is bad, I am

Very truly yours,
(Signed) CLINTON A. SOWERS.

We take pleasure in giving you the desired information:

Section 2229 of the School Code reads as follows:—

"Except as superintendent of schools, associate superintendent, assistant district superintendent, director of a special branch, or as principal of a high school, normal school, or manual training school, no person shall be appointed, promoted, or transferred to any educational position in the public school system, in school districts of the first class, whose names does not appear among the three highest names upon the proper eligible list."

The bill which you introduced adds a proviso which provides for the appointment "to any position in the lower grades such as the kindergarten, first and second grade any one holding a State certificate of merit and experience who for a period of three years or more has proven by satisfactory service as a substitute his or her fitness for such a position." The result of house bill No. 635 would be to exempt from appointment on the present basis kindergarten and primary teachers through the second grade, and to substitute nothing in the way of qualifications in its place by the holding of a so-called certificate of merit and experience and three years or more of satisfactory service as a substitute.

First of all, there is no need either in Pittsburgh or Philadelphia, the two cities affected, for any such change of standards. There is a good supply of primary teachers already on the list who have thoroughly prepared themselves by graduation from high school and from normal school to fill vacancies. Changing the standards, as this bill provides, would simply add to the list of unemployed people, or, which is worse, would make it possible through outside pressure and influence to force in teachers from outside the city in place of teachers within the city who have already secured places on the list as a result of their high school and normal school training.

In every large city in the United States, e. g., New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, etc., where the turnover in the teaching corps annually runs almost into the thousands, no better way has been yet devised of maintaining proper standards of selection or of being uniformly fair to all comers than that of the properly administered merit system. All previously attempted variations or modifications of this plan have resulted in lowering the standards of instruction for the children and of making appointments of teachers the result of pressure rather than fitness.

We are familiar with the method of administering the eligible lists in the city of Philadelphia. In fact, being interested in the welfare of our schools, we have made it a point to be informed in regard to it, and we can all testify to the fact that it is honestly and fairly administered at every point. The superintendent assures us that if any official under his supervision should attempt to juggle the marks or jump teachers ahead of others on the list, or practice any other form of dishonesty in the administration of the lists, dismissal would follow:

The examination papers for teaching positions are very carefully read by a series of readers who are not the ones who make the final nominations for appointment. All of the papers are marked by a number so that no reader of the papers can be prejudiced for or against certain paper by knowing the writer. The name of the candidate is kept in a sealed envelope which bears the number that appears on the candidate's papers, and this enevelope is not opened until all of the papers have been read, the mark of the oral examination turned in and the final rating established.

If house bill 635 should become a law, it would in our opinion be a definite step backward to the days when the chances for appointment in Philadelphia depended solely upon the relative strength of the pressure which an applicant might bring on the local committee, and the poor boy or girl without influence, however meritorious he or she might be, had no chance.

Yours sincerely,
DANIEL R. GOODWIN, Chairman,
Civic Group

Philadelphia, Pa., March 19, 1927.

Mr. Daniel R. Goodwin, Chairman, Civic Group, City Club of Phildelphia.

My dear Mr. Goodwin:

Your letter of March 11th was received, but the pressure of legislative business has prevented my making inquiries of you as I had intended.

I notice that you refer to Section 2229 of the School Code relating to the eligibility of applicants for positions under the school service and I note that Associate Superintendents, Assistant District Superintendents, etc., are exempted from the so-called Civil Service requirements. Is there any reason why this should be so?

You will note that my Bill No. 635 provides that a teacher may be given a permanent position if she substitutes for three years satisfactorily to the Superintendent of the school system and has a certificate of merit from the State.

Do you not think that a practical demonstration of ability is worth one hundred times an examination?

I note you say there is a good supply of primary teachers already on the list of graduates from our High and Normal schools. I wish you had been frank with me and told me before I got too deep into this fight that the object of that law was to keep the country school teachers out of the Philadelphia schools and reserve the Philadelphia schools solely for Philadelphians.

I bow with great respect to the wonderful tact and ability of the superintendents in being able to put this over with the members of the Legislature from the country.

I do not understand why you should have resorted to so logical, argumentive processes to convince the public that my Bill is wrong when you might have mentioned to me privately that the law as now written was meant to keep out the country teachers; but let me ask you, do you not think it better to have the American children of Philadelphia taught by American country teachers than by subjects of Russia and other foreign countries?

If you only knew of the numerous letters I have received from private citizens complaining about irregularities in the school system, you would undoubtedly feel as I do that there must be something wrong.

It was my pleasure, and indeed I thought I was doing right, when I voted in the Legislature heretofore for school laws recommended by educators of great ability, and it has only recently dawned upon me that the legislators, at their behest have been imposing on the people a school system which seeems to be 99c for the superintendents and 1c for the children. Only the other day, the Senate of our State passed a pension law to give school superintendents pensions of $7,000 per year—they are now paid thousands of dollars in salaries each year and the poor citizen and laboring man gets but a few dollars per week and when forced to retire by infirmities of age, is given a little cot in the Alms house.

Can the merit system justify itself by the results?

I notice you quote Section 2229 of the School Code which says that everybody shall take an examination except Superintendents and principals. Can you give any reason why they should be exempted? Are they bound together in an oath bound society to perpetuate their business? Have they a secret union? Do you know where it meets? Did you ever read the Goslings? Did you notice in the Goslings that the Superintendent of the Philadelphia school system said four years ago that he would expel all foreigners from our school system, and yet we find them in it?

If you had a cook working for you for three years and she was satisfactory in every respect, would you hold a written examination and accept some unknown person who had rendered no service because that person passed a better written examination, discharge your cook and put on the unknown person? What better recommendation can anybody have for public employment than three years of satisfactory service? Satisfactory to who?—a superintendent?

My Bill says that the Superintendent shall decide whether the service is satisfactory. If a Superintendent can run examinations, certainly he can decide who is satisfactory. On the back of trolley cars are college degree men, but at the head of Henry Ford's great plant is Henry Ford, a mechanic.

Judge ye not by beautiful words written on paper but guide yourself rather by results.

I notice you say there is a good supply of primary teachers. If this is true, then why does this merit system, as applied and executed by these superintendents, employ foreigners—subjects of Soviet Russia to teach our children European ideals and ignore Americanism?

You say my Bill would add, I assume, Americans to the already large list of unemployed Americans: that might be so, but let us get rid of the foreigners in our school system and make room for our fellow Americans.

Are you against giving Americans employment? Are you for preferring foreigners over Americans? Would you not rather have a real, honest-to-God native born colored school teacher teaching in our schools than a subject of Soviet Russia? Did you ever hear of an American politician employing a foreigner when Americans were unemployed? Just this thing is what your superintendents are doing.

I take my hat off to the American politician who is ready to stand up and say that his brother American shall stop walking the streets and shall fill the position that a foreigner is filling, and I am ready to spit in the face of any superintendent who thinks a Bolshevik should be employed in preference to an American.

Do you know that this superintendent-merit system has all the school teachers of Philadelphia cowed in submission? Do you know that when they write letters to you they are afraid to sign their names and addresses? Do you know that this superintendent merit system must have driven out of them all the firmness that an American should have?

I love an American to be bold and brave, but if this merit system makes teachers write letters to you anonymously, then something is wrong—the teachers are cowed? How can they teach and make bold and brave Americans?

I note that you are ready to testify that the system is honestly and fairly administered, and I regret that you are so quick to testify for a system which gives foreigners employment to the detriment of Americans.

Your letter tells me about the infallible system of marking papers. I have seen some tricks performed on the stage. I knew they were not miracles but I could explain how they happened. Somewhere I heard it said "Figures don't lie but figurers do." The system might be all right but I'm not a good enough bookkeeper to solve the juggling of figures.

Let me ask you why the superintendents want in the law that the eligible list should be private and in their hands only and the public should be denied the information? If it sounds good to you, it doesn't to me. I want to ask you, what chance has a poor boy or girl under the present system without friends?

Have the eligible list made public and let us see by the list itself how many poor boys and girls passed the examination and how many of them, without friends, failed. I have never seen the list—have you?

You call the system "fine" but how are you going to justify your conclusion without knowing—without looking at the list and without inquiry of the applicants? I can make anybody pass an examination if you will let me write the questions in advance of the examination. I can make the questions fit the ability of the applicant I want to pass, and I do not claim to be superior to the superintendents in this respect: they have more learning than I have—they can better judge the ability of the applicant and make the questions fit the applicant.

Hon. Clinton A. Sowers, Box 105, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Representative:-

In compliance with your request in letter of March 7th, 1927, I hereby submit a full statement of the facts relating to the case of Commonwealth vs Aaron Zacharkes, 926 N. 8th Street, Phila., Pa., charged with "Rape" on a school girl Olga Yaworazkowski, age twelve years, 2619 E. Dauphin Street, Phila., Pa.

On February 21st, 1927, Olga Yaworazkowski in company with her Aunt called at the station house and reported to me Act. Captain Wm. J. Whalen, that on February 8th, 1927, she was forced to remain in her class room after school hours at the Mott Annex School, Edgemont and Huntingdon Sts., by her teacher Aaron Zabarkes, who assaulted her twice.

I immediately sent Olga Yaworazkowski to the House of Detention for an examination and Dr. Moore of the House of Detention found upon examining child that she had been assaulted.

As a result of Dr. Moore's examination district detective John W. Sells, No. 1016, and Michael J. Walsh, No. 1058, of the 24th police district, arrested Aaron Zabarkes, at the Mott Annex School, Edgemont and Huntingdon Streets on a warrant issued by Magistrate James P. Casey, charged with rape.

The affidavit taken by Olga Yaworaskowski before Magistrate Jas. P. Casey on February 21st, 1927, is as follows:

On February 8th, 1927, Mr. Zabarkes had me remain after school and did assault me by force intercourse with me twice and washing my body off with a sponge, then told me to go home and not tell my parents or I would be put out of school. I went home but did not tell my Aunt until she discovered the blood on me, then I confessed what had happened. My Aunt brought me to the station house where I was told it was "rape" in violation of the Acts of Assembly and Laws provided.

Mrs. Sophie Rennato, aunt of the above mentioned girl resides at 2619 E. Dauphin Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Commanding 24th District.

My dear Mr. Goodwin, please read the following letter:

March 15, 1926.

Rep. Sowers.

Dear Sir: I see by the papers you are very much interested in the Public Schools. I am the mother of a young teacher out in June—for two or three months she did very little substituting then in January she was sent for, taught six weeks, then a new law came out no substitute was to have more than twenty days in one place, so she had to leave and has not been sent for since, nearly two weeks. Mr. Sowers I need the money badly—my husband is an invalid and I have given my only son to the City of Phila., being killed in action in France and sleeping over there. Why don't they put the married women out of the schools? then there would be room for these three hundred girls waiting every day to get a day's work. I know a teacher getting $260. a month in day school teaching night school getting $5.—her husband teach at night getting $5—then he works in the day time too—that makes her $18. a day. Think of it and us working for a day substituting. Mr. Sowers won't you try and do something? I have worked hard to try to keep my daughter in school and give her an education. Try and make them change that new order so a substitute can stay until the teacher returns. I know of one class where they had 9 substitutes since September. How much do you suppose those children learn? If they don't put the married women out, make the ones that get married stop teaching. I will not sign my name Mr. Sowers but I hope you will push this thing, everybody you speak to says they ought to put the married women out, then these poor girls would have work.

A MOTHER.

My dear Mr. Goodwin, is it right for a man to marry a woman and expect the City of Philadelphia to support his wife?

Mr. Goodwin, if my 100% American Bill on education is wrong, why did 120 educators of Philadelphia desert their posts last Monday and go to Harrisburg to talk against it? Do you know whether they surrendered their pay to the City for Monday and Tuesday while off duty to serve their own interests?

My dear Mr. Goodwin, I have a letter at my office which, on the face of it, appears to be a disguised handwriting, signed by R. Norris, sent to me by mail to Harrisburg, Pa. Will you please take enough time to study it? You, the good friend of the School Teachers' Superintendents' Union, I ask to be so kind as to take a little time and check up the facts in the letter and let me know if they are true. The letter reads as follows:

Phila. Mar. 14, 1927.

Mr. Clinton A. Sowers, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Wm. Sale, Head of Drawing and Manual training, Fkd. High, Relative? Secy. Dick.

Geo. Eckings, Head of Shops, brother-in-law Secy. Dick. N. E. High

Chas. Bauder, Director Industrial, wife's relative.

Ellwood Calhoun, Principal Roxborough High wife niece of Vice Prest. Catherine.

Why should these fellows squeal when others try to do the same thing? Eligible lists cannot be seen by anyone. Why?

Qualifications are changed for each examination to suit the desired ones, thus eliminating all old lists. Oral examiners are selected who know who is wanted. Where is the competition? Why not go ahead and investigate all recent appointments? What kind of politics is this?

Very truly yours,
R. NORRIS.

Knowing that you must be a man of leisure and have plenty of time to serve the public, and are anxious to do the right thing, I shall expect an answer from you in plenty of time to give this Legislature a chance to solve the Philadelphia school problem.

Now, Mr. Goodwin, I almost forgot to let you have a copy of another letter I have. It is from Magistrate James P. Casey—a Pinchot appointment—not a Gang politician a locomotive engineer, I believe. Read his letter:

JAMES P. CASEY, MAGISTRATE
Court No. 15

Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa. March 7, 1927.

Hon. Clinton A. Sowers, Representative 13th District, 1225 N. 11th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

My dear Representative:

Referring to our telephone conversation today, relative to the citizenship of Aaron Zabrakes of 926 N. 8th Street, this City, a teacher in the Mott School Annex, Huntingdon and Edgemont Streets, who was charged with rape by Olga Yaworczukowski, a twelve year old pupil.

When this matter was called to my attention by Mrs. Sophie Rennato, her aunt, realizing the serious nature of this charge and the fact this man was a school teacher, and with the knowledge that other children were going to this and other schools with men instructors and how quick people with supposed grievance against the school system would take the opportunity to condemn men teachers for girl pupils, I conducted an investigation in which I was assisted by Acting Police Captain William Whalen and District Detective Welsh and Sells and we all came to the conclusion the rape took place and a warrant was issued and the arrest was made when the prisoner was being slated he gave the following information.

Name: Aaron Zabarkes, place of birth, Russia, single, naturalized, he answered NO, age 21 years.

At the hearing, after swearing him I again asked him if he was naturalized and he stated "No" then to make sure I asked what country would he claim he was a citizen of he replied "Russia." This man came here about ten years ago passing through our Normal School and was placed on the eligibility list from his average or passing points.

Very truly yours,
JAMES P. CASEY,
Magistrate Court No. 15.

P. S: Enclosed please find copy of transcript.

Now, Mr. Goodwin, I almost forgot to call your attention to another letter I received from one of the leading colored lawyers of Philadelphia—not a gang politician, affiliated with your Reform movements and was your Reform candidate for office at one time. Read what he says happens to native born American colored school teachers.

Dear Sir:—I hereby extend my hearty congratulations upon the fight that you are making for equal opportunities for all American citizens. It is encouraging to note that a man of your experience should take up the fight for better opportunities for all of the youths of our great City and State.

I think that the Board of Education of the City of Philadelphia should be investigated for the discrimination that they are making in the application of the tax payers' money and the opportunities that they are denying to American born citizens. It has come to my knowledge that they are employing foreigners who are teaching Bolshevic and un-American ideas, while native born Americans, decendants of those of long standing, are walking the streets in idleness for want of employment.

Hoping that you will be successful in enacting your Bill into law, I remain

Very truly yours,
G. EDWARD DICKERSON.

G. E. D./I.

My Dear Mr. Goodwin, did your mother, when you were a little child, teach you the Christian principle to guide yourself more by the results of things than by the fair word spoken? And did she tell you that Americans are the best people on earth? And did she say that when you have something to give, give it to an American? And did she say that so long as you live be with Americans till your last breath? Mine did.

Do you approve of my Bill that superintendents of Public Schools shall not retire on pension exceeding $2500. in amount? Doesn't it seem unfair to the American workingman who receives $3. and $4. a day and school superintendents almost that amount per hour? That the American workingman must go to the Alms House while the school superintendent, after having received an abundance, shall live in luxury on $7,000. per year?

I want to call your attention to Section 2228 of the School Code which says that the eligible list shall be arranged as nearly as possible in order of rank or standing. Why does it read, "Arrange as nearly as possible?" Ought it not read, "Shall be arranged accurately," so that the poor boy and poor girl shall have a chance?

Have you read the law on the Board of Education of Philadelphia and noticed that the Board of Education is not to do anything until the superintendents suggest what it does? The Board of Education employes superintendents and then the superintendents boss their employer. No business man ever accepted such a condition. The Board of Education is like a dog that is shaken by its tail, instead of like a dog that wags its tail, its superintendent.

Don't you think that some of the money that goes to pay these $5,000. $6,000. and $7,000. pensions to superintendents of schools would be better spent by the State if it could be given to the Mothers' Assistance Fund or to help some hospital that is caring for some unfortunate.

Can you justify paying so large a pension to these superintendents of schools when our hospitals have been going along without the necessary revenue for the sick and disabled? Why is it the little teacher gets so little pension and the superintendents get so large a pension?

Now, in all seriousness, will you please tell me if you have any objection to my Bill which prohibits the employment of foreigners in our Public Schools and likewise, in all seriousness, will you please tell me if you have any objection to my Bill endeavoring to make the merit system better by requiring publication of the list and by requiring that the list shall be arranged not as "nearly right as possible" but be "arranged right" so as to give the poor boy and girl a chance.

Have you any objection to making the school civil service identical with the Civil Service in the City Hall, where the examiners and framers of the questions, and the markers of the papers, are not all members of the one, same, little society?

Would you object to having the Court or someone else appoint somebody to act in conjunction with this little clique in conducting their examinations? Would you seriously object to repealing what seems to be a useless thing—making a boy or girl go to school for two or three hours a week and then working the rest of the time? Do you really think they learn anything by such method? Or don't you really think the method was imposed upon the people to make a job for the system's friends? Do you really think that married women ought to be employed in the schools while single women are walking the streets unemployed?

Do you think that the mismanagement of the school system has anything to do with the increase of crime? Years ago, a boy and girl used to work at an early age and now they attend school till a later age.

Years ago, we had very few infant criminals—to-day they predominate. Do you think the merit system has anything to do with the increase in criminality?

Knowing that you are serious minded, and your associates are serious minded, and not actuated by any base motive or private gain and not related, I assume, to this superintendent clique, I am hoping from you and your associates a fair, honest and an American discussion of the subject. I await with interest what you have to say.

With the best of personal regards and hoping that this letter will arouse within you an American desire to be with America now and forever, I am

Very truly yours,
CLINTON A. SOWERS.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1349, as follows:

An Act to further amend Section ten of the Act of Assembly approved the twenty-ninth day of May Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (Pamphlet Laws twenty-nine) entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of natural gas companies" providing that natural gas companies shall have the right of eminent domain for the laying of pipe lines for the transportation and distribution of manufactured fuel gas

NAYS.—1

Baldrige,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 993 entitled

A Supplement to the act approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, (P. L. 521), entitled "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a non-resident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth, or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent, until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal;" imposing additional taxes equal to Federal credits.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STORB. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentlemen from Lancaster, Mr. Hess permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STORB. At the present time a national bank or corporation, if it transfers stock in a decedent's estate without getting a certificate from the Auditor General that the tax has been paid, makes itself liable for that tax. Now what does this change?

Mr. Hess. I can only say that this is a department bill, and it clarifies the present act. It was thought necessary by the department that the language of the act should be clarified.

Mr. STORB. I do not see how it clarifies the act at all.

Mr. Hess. I can assure you that it is entirely harmless and is an amendment desired by the department. The principal thing that it does is to take advantage of a change that was made in the Federal act, and adjusts the state act to the Federal act. It increases the revenues which fall under the act, and adjusts our present law to comply with the recent changes in the Federal act.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar until we can get more information on it.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 928 entitled

An Act requiring owners of property claiming exemptions from taxation under the laws of the Commonwealth to make proof of the right to exemption at each triennial assessment.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—1.

Erdley,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1369, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six (Pamphlet Laws thirteen) entitled "An act to carry into effect section five of article fourteen of the constitution relative to the salaries of county officers and the payment of fees received by them into the state or county treasury in counties containing over one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants" as amended

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1369, file folio 3219, be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 29, as follows:

An Act authorizing school district of the second class to assess and collect taxes upon the occupations of individuals and abolishing all per capita taxes in such districts

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That each school district of the second class shall have power to levy and collect taxes upon the occupation of each person taxable within their respective districts in the same manner as county taxes are now assessed upon trades professions and occupations under existing law After the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any of the said districts to assess and collect per capita taxes against individuals but all such taxes hereafter assessed against individuals shall be assessed only upon the occupation of the individual

This section shall not prevent the collection of per capita taxes assessed prior to the passage of this act

Section 2 It shall be the duty of the school boards of such school districts to value the occupations of all persons taxable under existing laws within such school districts which valuations shall be graduated by classes of occupations Provided That the valuation placed on the occupation of a housewife shall not in any case exceed thirty dollars

Section 3 The provisions of this act are severable and in case any section or proviso is declared unconstitutional the decision shall not be construed to impair any other provisions of this act It is hereby declared as a legislative intent that this act would have been passed had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein

Section 4 That section five hundred forty-two and so much of section five hundred thirty-seven of the act of one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) as amended as is inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, in my brief experience as a freshman in this college of lawmakers, I have learned that there is a marked difference between a bill and its sponsor. I have learned that a man may present a bill with which I may not agree but I may still retain his respect and his friendship. Such is the case in the bill now before you which was presented by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones, whose friendship I value, but in the case of the bill which he has presented, I must protest that it is a bad bill and should be defeated. The bill as first presented provided for the abolition of the per capita tax in counties and cities of the second class, cities of the third class, boroughs, towns, townships, school districts of the second, third and fourth classes and poor districts. After some discussion and very much antagonism on the part of the members of this House, the sponsor of the bill recommitted his bill and amended it to read that nothing but second class school districts in the state of Pennsylvania should be affected by this bill. If this bill were a bad bill for the districts as it first read, I insist that it is still a bad bill. This bill has for its purpose the cutting out of the per capita tax and having instead an occupational tax. At first blush it would appear that it was legislation to reduce taxes, but upon investigation it is apparently nothing of the sort, but merely tends to do away with the per capita tax system in Pennsylvania. New Castle is a third class city, and a second class school district. Our budget for the year 1927-28 will be nearly one million one hundred thousand dollars, certainly no mean amount, and of this amount we will collect about $135,000 of the per capita tax. This per capita tax is not mandatory upon the school districts, but under the provisions of this bill, if an occupational tax is assessed, it means that you will have two occupational taxes on the property holders, and that you will have to get your money from them, and not from the non-property holders. There is no reason why a single man, with no responsibilities and owning no property, should not bear a part of the tax burdens of this State. There is no reason because of their single blessedness why they should not pay for the education of children and yet if we have this bill, that is what the result will be, and it is a bad bill for this reason. The occupation tax in my own city, and I am merely using that for the purpose of an illustration, is nine and a three quarter mills. None of the assessment runs higher than $600, and that six hundred dollar assessment is that of a gentlemen—we do have some gentlemen in New Castle. If this bill goes through it means an increase in this occupation tax by at least three times. That would mean in the city with the nine and three-fourth mills tax assessed that you would have a larger return on this tax than you would be entitled to. On the other hand, if you have a school occupation tax at the same time as a city tax, then you have an inequitable assessment. It merely means that this bill is presented to remedy a local difficulty, and it is my opinion that this Assembly does not want to act on legislation of a purely local character. If the tax collector in the city of Wilkes-Barre cannot do the same thing as the tax collector of other third class cities, the fault is not with the law. Ladies and gentlemen, this bill is a bad bill, and I say to you in all sincerity that it should be defeated. I ask you to vote it down.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WILSON. Does this bill take from cities of the third class, the school district, the power to collect a per capita tax of from one to five dollars which we now have the authority to collect under the law?

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, this bill would abolish the per capita tax in the third class city school districts.

Mr. WILSON. I would ask the gentleman to answer my question. Does this bill take away from the cities of the third class, the school district, the authority to levy and collect the per capita tax of from one to five dollars which we now have for school purposes?

Mr. JONES. Yes.

Mr. WILSON. As a member representing a county having in it a city of third class, I only wish to say to the ladies and gentlemen of the House that the school districts in cities of the third class can harly get along now with the money that they have, and it would absolutely be impossible for them to get along if you took away from them the power to collect this per capita tax which we collect from people who do not pay any taxes on property. We have a great many people who send their children to school and the only money we get from them is the per capita tax, from one to five dollars which we collect and that don't amount to what it cost them in other states where they collect for books. The average in Pennsylvania is about three dollars in cities of the third class, and that does not amount to the amount in other states where they pay for the books for the children, and I say you should not take from cities of the third class power to collect this tax.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, in the last election I ran on a campaign platform of reducing the housewife's taxes down to a minimum, and not being supported by either gang in our section, I was elected in the city of Wilkes-Barre, in fifty-five out of fifty-six districts on this issue alone, without any money to spend. That shows you how unpopular the per capita tax on housewives is in Wilkes-Barre. I have hundreds of letters from all over the state saying this is the most unpopular tax imposed upon us. And gentlemen, the idea of imposing a tax upon a housewife of five dollars, who has no visible income to pay it and to put her on the charity of someone to pay it for her or enforce the law and put her in jail is not right, and we have ninety-five percent of the foreign people in Wilkes-Barre who say to the tax collector "Put me in jail". That is a fact. Do we want a law on the statute books, a law to put the mothers and wives who are not able to pay that tax unless someone pays it for them which will put them in jail if they don't pay it? Gentlemen, I don't think the men of this House want a law to do that to our wives and mothers who raise our children and worry about raising them, getting the meals and taking care of the children and getting them ready for school, and to have a deliquent tax-collector sitting on the stoop and threatening to put them in jail if some good-for-nothing husband will not pay their taxes.

There are only eighteen second class school districts in the state of Pennsylvania. I have answers from thirteen of the eighteen who say this is a very unpopular tax and most of them say they are unable to collect a large majority of it. I have a letter from York, if I might read it,

CITY OF YORK, PENNSYLVANIA
RALPH A. MITZEL
City Treasurer.

York, Pennsylvania, February 23, 1927.

Hon. Benjamin Jones, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir:

In reply to yours of 16th inst. requesting number of housewives assessed under Per Capita tax, the number collected and whether or not it is popular in this city, I wish to state that the Per Capita tax is not popular with wage workers and many refuse to pay it.

The married women depend upon their husbands to pay this tax and he, of course, has the impression that it is simply doubling his own taxes. This in fact is true; and with a wife and a daughter or two he is not very enthusiastic when compelled to pay City, School and County occupation taxes.

With the class of people who are financially able to pay the taxes and not suffer any privation, there are those who object to paying them because they do not vote and take no part in politics.

Of course some pay willingly but this class seems to be in the great minority.

I cannot give you the number of Per Capita taxes assessed nor the number collected. But to arrive at a fairly accurate percentage of collections, I have gone over some of the tax books and find that after repeated "duns" I have collected about 55% of the total assessed Per Capita taxes for City purposes.

If I can render you any further services kindly let me know.

Yours respectfully,

RALPH A. MITZEL,
City Treasurer.

If you are able to collect fifty-five percent there is forty-five percent that are getting away with not paying their taxes. The fifty-five per cent is being imposed upon. In my own experience, I have a family on both sides of me who has never paid any per capita housewife tax. I don't think that is fair. I can read you letter after letter from towns where they claim they are only able to collect eight and ten percent of the amount of tax. Why go on and try to keep something on the books you cannot collect; the school boards cannot get it; the tax collector cannot collect it and he is in trouble.

I have answers from twenty-six states from the Attorney Generals, in answer to my letter asking if they have any such tax. Everyone says they have no such tax as that on their statute books. Now, gentlemen, are not our wives and mothers as good in Pennsylvania as they are in these other states? Do you want a tax on our wives and mothers which will put them in jail unless good friend husband or a brother or some other good friend will pay it for them and that is just what you have here.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL.

Mr. JONES. I am asking you not to vote for this bill but to place it upon the postponed calendar until we try to convert these fellows that are against it.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to take any more time of the House than is necessary. It does seem to me that the gentlemen's reference to the tax being unpopular is hardly fitting. It occurs to me that few taxes are popular whether they are automobile taxes or school taxes. Unfortunately under the existing form of government it is the only way of paying the bill. This argument about putting women in jail sounds very much like a sob sister story. The actual fact is that they are not putting women in jail, at least not in my district, because the husbands in my district and in the western districts of Pennsylvania think enough of their wives to pay five dollars to keep them out of jail, and I believe that they think enough of them in Wilkes-Barre too. These letters the gentleman has are very nice but I doubt whether they should be considered seriously in the light of this taxation problem. The only question is how are we going to pay the bills and the answer is by taxes. This is an equitable tax. I agree that some foreigners are against the tax. It seeems to me we can hardly afford not to tax them. We are doing it in New Castle and still expect to do it and with the help of this House we will continue to do it.

NAYS—1.

Moore, F. N.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 292, entitled:

An Act regulating the introduction of reputation and character testimony in criminal actions under certain circumstances

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 292, file folio 959, be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 720, entitled:

An Act defining murder and manslaughter by motor vehicle and providing a penalty therefor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I realize that the hour is late and that you don't want any extended speeches made. However, this bill that is before you now is such a radical bill that I think I ought to express to you those sentiments that I have concerning it. In the first place I wish to call your attention to the fact that this is a serious bill because it deals with the creation of the crime known in law as murder, and certainly it ought to be given a careful consideration by every member of this House. We should not very lightly put on our statute books crimes creating murder unless after due and proper consideration we believe that the crime proposed to be murder is really such a crime. I call your attention to the fact that the law as it now is, says that where a person operates an automobile in a reckless and wanton manner, that the person can be tried for murder. We have precedents in our own city, and I dare say that you have precedents in your city, where people who operated motor vehicles recklessly and wantonly were either tried for or plead guilty to murder and the court has fixed the degree of the crime as murder in the second degree. I call your attention to the fact that murder must have malice and must have intent under our law. This bill would do away with that. This bill would say to you that negligence in and of itself in the operation of an automobile can be punished by twenty years imprisonment. I ask you, members of the House, to stop and consider whether or not you believe that it ought to be murder to drive an automobile with negligence.

What does this bill say? It says "gross negligence." Does it define the meaning of the word "gross?" Does it tell you what the word "gross" means or shall consist of? The purpose of this bill or the use of that word "gross" is to eliminate from our murder statutes malice and intent.

I want to say to you further, this: First the law being unnecessary and secondly the use of the word as I have defined it to you is an improper one. In addition to that there is this objection to this bill. It goes on to say that it shall and may be lawful for the district attorney with the leave of the court to waive a charge of murder and proceed against such a person on a charge of a misdemeanor, and to give in evidence any fact or act of ordinary negligence. It don't tell you what the misdemeanor will be but it simply says you shall be charged with murder or with a misdemeanor and leaves to the district attorney the right to say what you shall be charged with.

I am going to ask you ladies and gentlemen to vote against this bill. Don't let us say that where a person goes out with a gun with malice in his heart with intent to do or commit a crime that a man who operates an automobile negligently is guilty of the same offense.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a bill that has been introduced at the request of the District Attorneys' Association of Pennsylvania. It is one of the bills known commonly as the "Charles Fox" group of bills. It is true that the bill creates apparently a new crime. In Philadelphia, however, the court has already adjudicated that wherever a man drives an automobile recklessly and with an utter disregard to the rights of others that that is murder. The court used an illustration which appeals to me and which appealed to the District Attorneys' Association in the drafting of this bill. If a man is so carelessly negligent as to take a gun and swing it around not caring when it goes off who it happens to hit or who it happens to kill, when that man in his heart may not have malice to you but he has such an utter disregard for human life, his carelessness is so gross, his disregard for other peoples rights is so gross, that that man is as much a murderer as the man who deliberately shoots at you. This bill does not say murder in the first degree, this bill says murder from a gross and careless operation of an automobile. What would you say if your little child was in the highway playing and some fellow comes down the road, joy-riding maybe with a lot of girls in the car, hugging them or doing something else, and runs violently into the little child and kills it? Would you think that an ordinary crime? Would you think that was something that did not warrant a greater punishment than assault and battery or manslaughter? How would you like that brought back home to you?

Let us take the next section of the bill. The next section is practically nothing new in Pennsylvania law. If a man is negligent in the operation of an automobile and he kills somebody and that negligence is so terrible and gross in its character that man then is guilty of manslaughter. We have in Philadelphia and you have in your county convicted men of careless operation of an automobile in the taking of human life. Is a punishment of two years and a thousand dollars fine any too much for a man who does that? I ask you members of the House for your careful consideration of this bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I thoroughly agree with my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, and I don't belive that the other gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers is serious in his argument for this bill. It does not ring with the same ring that the gentleman usually talks on a bill.

In the first place, as Mr. Witkin has said, murder and manslaughter are well defined. It needs no further definition as far as this act is concerned. In other words, in the act of 1860 it provides that murder which shall be perpetrated by means of poison, by lying in wait, or by any other kind of wilful, deliberate and premeditated killing or which shall be committed in the perpetration or the attempt to perpetrate any arson, rape, or burglary, shall be deemed murder in the first degree, and all other kinds of murder shall be deemed murder in the second degree; and then it provides that all murder that is not first degree is either manslaughter or second degree and includes all unlawful killing under circumstances of depravity of heart and disregard of social duty, but where no intent to kill exists. Therefore in all cases where there is no intent to kill it can be inferred that it is murder of the second degree. We need no act of assembly to cover that condition and this act takes away from a decision by jury the question of innocence. In other words, homicide is defined in murder as first degree and second degree and manslaughter, which is voluntary or involuntary manslaughter. This act takes entirely away from the jury the right to say whether or not the crime is voluntary manslaughter and only leaves the killing by automobile to be involuntary manslaughter. The act is entirely unnecessary. The law is full and explicit at the present time and just as the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, says, the word "gross" which has a definition to be implied by somebody else. It is not a good bill I think, and should be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 781, entitled:

An Act providing that the negligence of a servant or employe of any municipality shall be attributable to the municipality responsible for his compensation or wages

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a bill that works a hardship on every municipal corporation in the State of Pennsylvania. It is being opposed by every organization of third class cities and boroughs and municipalities in the State. I think it is a bad bill and should be voted down.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, in the absence of the sponsor of bill, I move that it be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. GREEBY. Mr. Speaker I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. BURNS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11:00 o'clock.

Mr. EMHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 11.59 o'clock P. M.) the House adjourned until tomorrow morning at 11:00 o'clock.
